Day By Day Itinerary

Tues., Sept. 15 – MINNEAPOLIS / EN ROUTE

This evening we depart Minneapolis by scheduled airline service to begin the overnight transatlantic flight to Dublin, Ireland. (I)

Wed., Sept. 16 – DUBLIN / BELFAST

Shortly after the sun rises on the Irish coast, we arrive in Dublin where we'll meet our Driver Guide who will travel with us throughout our vacation. Leaving the airport, we'll begin the journey towards Northern Ireland where we'll stop in Armagh, the ecclesiastical capital of all Ireland since the 5th century when St. Patrick founded his church here. We'll visit the two cathedrals named after St. Patrick. The twin spires of the Catholic Cathedral overlook the city and it was here on March 17, 1840, that the foundation stone for St. Patrick's Catholic Cathedral was laid. Sitting on an opposing hill is the older Protestant Cathedral that dates to medieval times and houses the bones of Brian Boru, the High King of Ireland. Following our visit to Armagh, we'll continue our journey to the Northern Ireland capital city of Belfast. (I,D)

Thurs., Sept. 17 – BELFAST

This morning we'll enjoy a Belfast City Sightseeing Tour. We'll see the grounds of Queens University and travel along the Golden Mile to Donegall Square where we'll take in the ornate Victorian buildings that include the Grand Opera House and Crown Liquor Saloon, before stopping to view the imposing City Hall. Then, we'll take in both St. Anne's Cathedral and the Albert Memorial Clock Tower, as we make our way out to Shankhill and Falls Road, the main Catholic and Protestant areas that were home to the bloody battle grounds of the "Troubles." Our tour will come to an end following a visit to the ever-popular Titanic Belfast Museum, a monument to Belfast's maritime heritage where the RMS Titanic was built. (B)

Fri., Sept. 18 – BELFAST / DERRY

Today we depart Belfast and travel the Causeway Coastal Route through the magnificent Nine Glens of Antrim, a corner of Northern Ireland where fairies and folklore are part of daily life. Here we'll visit the Giant's Causeway where 40,000 hexagonal basalt columns formed over 60 million years ago. The sheer strangeness of this World Heritage Site is the subject of numerous legends, the most popular of which involves the giant Finn McCool, a hardy Ulster hero. Our next stop will take us to the Old Bushmills Distillery, where we'll learn first-hand how they make the craft whiskey and discover the storied history of the world's oldest licensed whiskey distillery. At the conclusion of our tour we'll enjoy a sampling session in the Potstill Bar.

Afterward, we'll set our sights towards Londonderry, also known as Derry. It is the second-largest city in Northern Ireland, known for its historic walled city on the banks of the River Foyle. (B,D)

Sat., Sept. 19 – DERRY

A leisurely day on tour will begin with a Walking Tour of the iconic Derry Walls. We'll learn about the 1,500 years of history and culture enclosed within Ireland's only completely walled city; from the 6th century monastic settlement to the vibrant European city of the 21st century. Next, we'll visit the Museum of Free Derry. The museum tells the story of the dramatic events which took place between 1968 to 1972 in the Bogside neighborhood. When violence escalated, the area was proclaimed "Free Derry" and is widely regarded as ground zero in the fight for Catholic civil rights in Northern Ireland. (B)

Sun., Sept. 20 – DERRY / DONEGAL

This morning we depart Northern Ireland and travel into the Republic of Ireland where we'll make a brief photo stop at Grianan of Aileach, a hilltop stone fort dating from 1700 BC, to enjoy the breathtaking views of three counties and the rugged Donegal coastline. Then, we'll set our sights on Glenveagh National Park, the second largest National Park in Ireland, to explore Glenveagh Castle, modeled after Scotland's Balmoral Castle. The castle is also home to exotic gardens that date back to the 1880s and feature the original Victorian layout. This afternoon we'll find out why Donegal is widely considered Ireland's most spectacular County on the Wild Atlantic Way. (B,D)

Mon., Sept. 21 – DONEGAL (Slieve League Cliffs)

Today we will explore the Donegal Peninsula where the landscape has been remarkably unaffected by the passage of time, a striking mixture of coastal beauty, mountains and lovely lakes. We begin with a stop in the fishing port of Killybegs where the quays are well worth seeing and the narrow winding streets give the town a timeless feel. Then we're headed to the Slieve League Cliffs Visitor Centre for an insight into the wildlife, local history and heritage from years gone by and more - all combined with some Irish banter! As we'll learn, the cliffs rise almost 2,000 feet above the Atlantic Ocean and are among the highest sea cliffs in Europe. This afternoon we'll set aside free time in Donegal Town, a fairytale of a place, with a charming harbor and stoic stone remains of centuries past, like those of 15th-century Donegal Abbey and the Diamond, the central hub of the town. (B)

Tues., Sept. 22 – DONEGAL / GALWAY

This morning we depart Donegal and travel towards the rugged yet serene Connemara region. This rocky land of broad-backed mountains and pearl-like lakes is the largest Irish-speaking section of the country, and the traditional ways of life are as much a part of this region's attraction as is the scenery. Here, we'll visit picturesque Kylemore Abbey, a castellated neo-Gothic mansion occupied by an Irish Benedictine community of nuns. Afterward, we'll be on our way to the city of Galway. Following restorations in the early 1970's, today we'll find that the narrow and winding streets of this once-walled city have been brought back to life. (B,D)

Wed., Sept. 23 – GALWAY (Cliffs of Moher)

Today we travel into the heart of Connaught, a rural, sparsely populated land, with windswept mountains and countryside speckled with low stone walls and peat bogs. Our journey will take us through the scenic Burren, a vast limestone plateau in northwest County Clare, as we make our way to the eco-friendly Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre. One of Ireland's favorite visitor experiences, the Cliffs of Moher tower over the rugged west Clare coast as they rise to a height of 650 feet from out of the Atlantic. Following our visit, we'll return to Galway for an afternoon at leisure. With a mix of bohemian cool and traditional culture, Galway is famous for its traditional Irish music and a bustling pub scene. (B)

Thurs., Sept. 24 – GALWAY / DUBLIN

This morning we depart Galway and travel across the Midlands, as we make our way back to the capital city of Dublin. On arrival, we'll enjoy a Dublin City Sightseeing Tour. Highlights on tour will include the Bank of Ireland built in 1729 and formerly the Irish Parliament; the National Museum; Dublin Castle; Four Courts, built in the 18th century and now home to the High Courts of Justice; Trinity College; and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Our tour will come to an end with a visit to the Guinness Storehouse where we'll experience the history, heart, and soul of Ireland's most beloved beer. Not only will we learn about the story of Guinness past & present, but we'll also end with a tasting of their wonderful stout in the Visitors Bar. (B,D)

Fri., Sept. 25 – DUBLIN / MINNEAPOLIS

After breakfast this morning we travel to Dublin Airport in preparation for the return journey home. No better time to reflect on memories of our Irish Folklore Adventure to last a lifetime and new friendships made along the way! (B,I)
