Itinerary

Wednesday, November 27

With an early morning flight, we are off to New York City to experience the magic of NYC during the Holiday Season. As we arrive in New York, we will have lunch at the Chelsea Market a world famous food hall located in the heart of New York City. After lunch we will be joined by a step-on guide for a city tour of Manhattan. This will be a great overview of the city before we arrive in Midtown Manhattan at our hotel for the next four nights. Our hotel is centrally located, near Central Park, Rockefeller Center, and steps away from a Metro Subway station for your convenience. Once we are checked in, the evening is yours to explore the area, which may include your first visit to Times Square.

Thursday, Nov. 28

This morning begins with being a part of New York City's most famous event and kick-off to the holiday season, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. After breakfast, you will have a short walk to our reserved seats for viewing the iconic parade. In addition to the well-known balloons and floats, the parade also features live music and other performances. College and high school marching bands from across the country participate in the parade. After the parade, you can spend the remainder of the day in Rockefeller Center. We will see the Christmas tree, skating rink and visit St. Patrick's Cathedral. A unique shopping experience is a short five-block walk to the Holiday Market, located in Bryant Park Winter Village. The market is a European inspired open-air market featuring "jewel box" kiosks, showcasing local crafts,

Friday, November 29

You can tailor your day to your personality. You can join Today live on the Plaza, with an early morning broadcast or what's better than high fashion at lower prices? Not much, of course. Enter Saks Fifth Avenue's annual Black Friday sale, which typically begins the week of Turkey Day. Opt outside and lace up your skates on Black Friday.

Ice skating in NYC is one of the city's most beloved seasonal traditions. The iconic rink at Rockefeller Center is waiting for you. If shopping is not your thing, experience the beauty of Central Park on a horse and carriage ride. See Central Park how it was originally designed to be traveled. Tonight, we will attend the Christmas Spectacular starring the Radio City Rockettes,
