The health and safety of our travelers, while offering quality tours, is our top priority. We have implemented a few new procedures to ensure your safety along with choosing motor coaches that have intensified their cleanliness practices to keep our buses safe. As the coordinator of your tour, we will watch the ever changing rules and procedures for all of our destinations.

Every tour includes Trip Insurance, which does cover the traveler for cancellation due to medical, however it does not cover if you want to cancel because you have changed your mind to travel. If a tour needs to be cancelled due to Covid, or not enough travelers, you can rest assured to receive all of your money back, including the deposit. Wendinger Travel is ready to resume creating unforgettable vacation experiences for you when it is safe to travel!
