ITINERARY

Monday, December 29

Los Angeles, CA

Early this morning, we take to the skies for Los Angeles, California. On arrival, we'll meet our local tour guide who will introduce us to the "City of Angels." As we'll soon find out, Los Angeles has something for everyone, with 75 miles of sunny coastline, a flourishing Downtown, lifestyle playgrounds for the rich and famous, trend-setting art and fashion scenes, and internationally flavored neighborhoods. Our stay at the Doubletree By Hilton Hotel in Torrance, is adjacent to Del Amo Fashion Center, one of the largest malls in Southern California. Your local guide will be happy to make dinner reservations for you at one of the many restaurants in the immediate vicinity.

Tuesday, December 30

Los Angeles, CA

After a sumptuous breakfast, we depart the hotel to see what goes into the making of the spectacular bloom-covered floats of the Tournament of Roses Parade with an early morning, behind-the-scenes visit to the Parade Float Construction Barn in Pasadena. We'll view the floats up-close and in living color, always an exciting activity. It's amazing to see firsthand the variety of fruit, seeds, bark, grasses, and of course, breathtaking flowers being applied to the floats by hard working volunteers and experienced professionals. Afterward, we journey to the adjacent village of San Marino to tour Huntington Library and Botanical Gardens, a collections-based educational and research institution. In addition to the library, the institution houses an extensive art collection with a focus of 18th & 19th century European art and 17th to mid-20th century American art. The property also includes approximately 120 acres of specialized botanical landscaped gardens, most notably the "Japanese Garden", the "Desert Garden", and the "Chinese Garden"

(Liu Fang Yuan). See the art collections, exhibits and rare and exotic plants from around the world before returning to the hotel in the late afternoon.

Wednesday, December 31

Los Angeles, CA

After breakfast, we'll enjoy an exciting tour of Los Angeles, Hollywood and Beverly Hills, and Santa Monica. Our adventure begins with the drive to downtown Los Angeles., the hub of a metropolitan area with 10 million residents. Our first stop is the old Mexican Quarter known as Olvera Street, where Los Angeles was founded in 1769. We then pass the Music Center, Disney Concert Hall, designed by famed architect Frank Gehry, and Staples Center, home to the Los Angeles Lakers, Clippers and Kings. Continuing past the Hollywood hills, we arrive at Farmer's Market & The Grove, where the food is the freshest, the produce the best and the shops unique! There is time for an extended lunch and shopping before entering Hollywood to see Grauman's Chinese Theater, with its permanent collection of handprints, footprints and signatures of famous stars. And take a stroll along the Walk of Fame past the Dolby Theatre where each year the Academy Awards are presented. From Hollywood, we drive on the Sunset Strip into Beverly Hills. Adjacent to Beverly Hills is Century City, the business center of the entertainment industry and home of 20th Century Fox Movie Studios. Our tour continues to the community of Santa Monica, known as "Paradise by the Sea." We'll visit the Santa Monica Pier, the West Coast's oldest amusement pier, before traveling to the Third Street Promenade. Once a decaying shopping street, the Promenade today is three pedestrian blocks lined with shops, cafes, bookstores and theaters - making it one of the liveliest places in Los Angeles. Our visit to Santa Monica will come to an end as we travel to beautiful Palisades Park, where 26 picturesque acres stretch along 1.6 miles on the bluffs overlooking the Pacific. In the late afternoon, we return to the hotel to celebrate New Year's Eve with the east coast to ring in the new year, before retiring early in eager anticipation of the exiting events of the following day.

Thursday, January 1

Happy New Year! Hot coffee and tea will be waiting for you in the hotel lobby along with box breakfasts for you to take along on the early morning departure to the Tournament of Roses Parade, for many a once in a lifetime experience. Known as "America's New Year Celebration," the parade has been a grand tradition since 1890. The smell of flowers will fill the air as the beautiful pageantry and tradition of magnificent floral floats, high-stepping equestrians and spirited marching bands highlight this popular holiday event. Be sure to bring your camera along for this amazingly beautiful photo-op of these vivid displays of floral extravagance. Following the festivities, we'll enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before returning to the hotel.

Friday, January 2

Today, we bid farewell to Los Angeles and head east past Pasadena to the community of Sierra Madre, silhouetted against the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains. A visit to Floatfest at Victory Park, allows up-close viewing of the floral and animated masterpieces of yesterday's Tournament of Roses Parade parked in a garden-like setting. Here you can truly see the design and workmanship that went into each float entry and learn more about the float process from Tournament volunteers "White Suiters" – on hand. We spend the entire morning at Victory Park, with an opportunity for a light lunch from one of the many food vendors onsite. After lunch, we travel south to the LAX airport or the City of Long Beach to experience the Queen Mary like never before! More than just a ship, the Queen Mary is an award-winning hotel, home to a variety of dining experiences, and a gateway to thrilling historical and paranormal tours. Anchored in Long Beach, CA, she invites you to be a part of her rich history while embracing the vibrant energy of today. Step aboard and immerse yourself in an unforgettable journey where history is not just remembered, but lived. History sleeps here, and so can you. Relax in an original Art Deco stateroom where rare and vintage crafted woodwork, 1930s artwork, and working portholes recreate the golden era of transatlantic voyages. Offering more than just a stay—it's a time capsule filled with adventure.

Saturday, January 3

After breakfast, the entire day is at your leisure to enjoy a day trip to Catalina Island, rent a bike for shopping and dining at the nearby Shoreline Village on the waterfront, visit the Aquarium of the Pacific, which is the 4th largest in the Nation or relax on deck and enjoy the amenities of the Queen Mary.
