Dear Parish Family,

So far Punxsutawney Phil prediction of six more weeks of winter is accurate and includes beaucoup snow making Schuylkill County a “winter wonderland.” I hope and pray that you are safe and managed to clear the snow from the last snow storm before we get more snow this coming week.

While praying the Liturgy Hours Office of Readings, I read a quote from the constitution on the Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council - Sacrosanctum Concilium and was inspired by the beauty of the Liturgy of the Church, especially her celebration of the holy sacrifice of the Mass. I would like to share some of our Catholic faith’s teaching about of the liturgy so that we can continue to grow in understanding and appreciation of the Sacrifice of the Mass as we prepare to begin the Season of Lent on Ash Wednesday.

“In the liturgy on earth we are given a foretaste and share in the liturgy of heaven” is the Gospel - Good News - that we are longing to hear and the way in which our Lord redeems and sustains us and nourishes us with heavenly food of his Real Presence in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

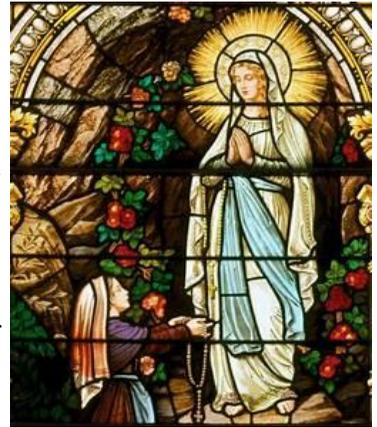

From the constitution on the sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council (Sacrosanctum Concilium, nn. 7-8. 106)

Christ is present to his Church

Christ is always present to his Church, especially in the actions of the liturgy. He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, in the person of the minister (it is the same Christ who formerly offered himself on the cross that now offers by the ministry of priests) and most of all under the eucharistic species. He is present in the sacraments by his power, in such a way that when someone baptizes, Christ himself baptizes. He is present in his word, for it is he himself who speaks when the holy Scriptures are read in the Church. Finally, he is present when the Church prays and sings, for he himself promised: Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there in their midst.

Indeed, in this great work which give perfect glory to God ad brings holiness to men, Christ is always joining in partnership with himself his beloved Bride, the Church, which calls upon its Lord and through him gives worship to the eternal Father.

It is therefore right to see the liturgy as an exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ, in which through signs addressed to the senses man’s sanctification is signified and, in a way proper to each of these signs, made effective, and in which public worship is celebrated in its fullness by the mystical body of Jesus Christ, that is, by the head and by his members.

Accordingly, every liturgical celebration, as an activity of Christ the priest and of his body, which is the Church, is a sacred action of a preeminent kind. No other action of the Church equals it title to power or its degree of effectiveness.

In the liturgy on earth we are given a foretaste and share in the liturgy of heaven, celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem, the goals of our pilgrimage, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God, as minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle. With the whole company of heaven we sing a hymn of praise to the Lord; as we reverence the memory of saints, we hope to have some part with them, and to share in their fellowship; we wait for the Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, until he, who is our life, appears, and we appear with him in glory.

By an apostolic tradition taking its origin from the very day of Christ’s resurrection, the Church celebrates the paschal mystery every eighth day, the day that is rightly called the Lord’s day. On Sunday the Christian faithful ought to gather together, so that by listening to the word of God and sharing in the Eucharist they may recall the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus and give thanks to God who has given them a new birth with a lively hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The Lord’s day is therefore the first and greatest festival, one to be set before the loving devotion of the faithful and impressed upon it, so that it may be also a day of joy and freedom from work. Other celebrations must not take precedence over it, unless they are truly of the greatest importance since it is the foundation and the kernel of the whole liturgical year.

Readings for Sunday Mass, February 21st:

2020 Contribution Statements: Anyone wanting to receive a copy of their 2020 Contribution Statement for tax preparation can call the office and leave your name, number, and a brief message.

2021 Offering Envelopes: The remaining offering envelopes were mailed. If you did not receive yours, please call the parish office. Thank you.

Parish Drop Boxes: There are 2 drop boxes located on the Parish Rectory porch. The larger box is for anything that comes directly to the office, the smaller box will be for all fundraising returns. Both these boxes are marked accordingly and locked and will be opened by office personnel. Thank you.

2021 Mass Intention Book: Due to the ongoing COVID19 pandemic procedures and restrictions, the 2021 Mass Book opening will be done by the fully completed request form (1 request per form). The office will try to accommodate your first choices, however; if there are any questions or concerns, the office will contact you. The request forms are located in the church on the table as you enter or on the parish website.

Please note: We are not permitted to accept more than one intention per Mass. Also, some dates are reserved for specific parish intentions, this includes the Saturday Vigil Mass, (for example: People of the Parish).

Mass requests may be submitted in the following ways:
1. Drop your Mass Intention Request form in an envelope marked "Attn: Secretary/Mass Requests" in the collection basket, rectory porch drop box or the mail OR 2. email to strichard@frontiernet.net (please include Mass Requests in the subject line).

COOKS WITH COLLARS

You still have a little time!
Father Tolentino needs your help!

Fr. Tolentino is representing the Church of St. Richard in COOKS WITH COLLARS, an online cooking competition to raise funds for parishes and Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Allentown. Visit www.cookswithcollars.com to see your favorite priests from around the Diocese creating delicious kitchen concoctions. So vote often (deadline February 15) for our Diocesan top chef! Each vote is just $10.00. All voting proceeds benefit our parish. Thanks for making Father Eric and the Church of St. Richard a winner!

Marian Catholic High School News:

Free Tax Preparation Assistance: Junior & senior accounting students from DeSales University will provide tax preparation assistance free of charge to senior citizens and those with lower incomes beginning Monday, February 15th through Friday, March 26th. The program is part of the United States Internal Revenue Service's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program.

To schedule a VITA appointment, call (610) 282-1100, ext. 1868. A DeSales student will return the phone call & provide assistance accordingly. Individuals needing assistance should bring all printed tax information and all documents pertaining to federal, state and local taxes to their appointment. All in-person appointments will be conducted with all COVID-related precautions, and visitors to the DeSales campus are required to be masked.

The Angelus

V. The angel spoke God's message to Mary,
R. and she conceived by the Holy Spirit.
Hail, Mary ....

V. "I am the lowly servant of the Lord:
R. let it be done to me according to your word."
Hail, Mary ....

V. And the Word became flesh
R. and lived among us.
Hail, Mary ....

V. Pray for us, holy Mother of God.
R. That we may become worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Let us pray.

V. Lord,
fill our hearts with your grace:
once, through the message of an angel you revealed to us the incarnation of your Son;
now, through his suffering and death lead us to the glory of his resurrection.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Prayer after Communion: Even though we are leaving the church after receiving Holy Communion, it is very important in our spiritual lives for us to pause and recognize Christ's Eucharistic presence within us. We invite you to take that time before leaving the church parking lot.

I. Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy wounds hide me. Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malignant enemy defend me. In the hour of my death call me.
And bid me come unto Thee, That with all Thy saints,
I may praise thee Forever and ever. Amen.

II. May Your Body, O Lord, which I have eaten, and Your Blood which I have drunk, cleave to my very soul, and grant that no trace of sin be found in me, whom these pure and holy mysteries have renewed.

III. Who live and reign, world without end. Amen. We humbly beseech You, almighty God, to grant that those whom You refresh with Your sacraments, may serve you worthily by a life well pleasing to You. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns, world without
end. Amen

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty! 616

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul. Praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
All you who hear, Now to his temple draw near. Praise him in glad adoration!
2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning And, as on wings of an eagle uplifted, sustaining.
Have you not seen All you ave needed has been Met by his gracious ordaining?

Joyful, Joyful We Adore You 614

1. Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of glory, Lord of Love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before you,
O-p'ning to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away; Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day!
2. All your works with joy surround you, Earth and heav'n and reflect your rays, Stars and angels sing around you, Center of unbroken praise. Field and forest, vale and mountains, Flow'ry meadow, flashing sea, Chanting bird, and flowing fountain Sound their praise eternally!
