Dear parish family,

I hope that you are all being safe out there and am praying for all of you daily. This past week the Church is promoting vocations awareness. I would like to share with you some Part 1 of quotes from Saint John Paul II, Pope, encouraging young people to consider vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Please share this vocations information with any young people you know among your family, friends and neighbors who may be considering or receptive to considering a vocation to the priesthood or religious life.

"At the sight of the crowds, his [Jesus'] heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned,* like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." (NAB Mt 9:36-38)

"What is God calling you to do?"

I turn especially to you, boys and girls, young and not so young, who find yourselves at the decisive moment of choice. I would like to meet you one by one, call you by your name, talk to you heart to heart of things extremely important not only for yourself, but for the whole of humanity I would like to ask each one of you: What will you do with your life? What are your plans? Have you ever thought of committing your existence totally to Christ? Do you think that there can be anything greater than to bring Jesus to people and people to Jesus?<sup>1</sup>

... we search for life's true meaning. We wonder and ask, Why? Why am I here? Why am I alive at all? What must I do? None of you is alone in posing these questions. Humanity as a whole feels the pressing need to give sense and purpose to a world which is increasingly complicated and difficult to be happy in.<sup>2</sup>

"You are at the great crossroads of your lives and you must decide how your future can be lived happily, accepting the responsibilities which you hope will be placed squarely on your shoulders, playing an active role in the world around you. You ask me for encouragement and guidance, and most willingly I offer some words of advice to all of you in name of Jesus Christ. In the first place I say this: you must never think that you are alone in deciding your future! And second: when deciding your future, you must not decide for yourself alone!" ... we must share and spread is that the call to holiness is directed to all Christians (Lumen Gentium, ch. 5).

Ask yourselves, young people, about the love of Christ. Acknowledge his voice resounding in the temple of your heart. Return his bright and penetrating glance which opens the paths of your life to the horizons of the Church's mission. It is a taxing mission, today more than ever, to teach men the truth about themselves, ... to show faithful souls the... riches of the love of Christ. Do not be afraid... because Jesus, who loved us first, is prepared to give himself to you, as well as asking of you. If he asks much from you, it is because he knows you can give much.<sup>5</sup>

... Christian holiness does not mean being sinless, but rather it means struggling not to give in and always getting up after every fall.

Follow Christ! You are single or who are preparing for marriage. Follow Christ! You who are young or old. Follow Christ! You who are sick or aging; you who feel ...the need of a friend. Follow Christ!<sup>8</sup>

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
All you who hear Now to his temple draw near.
Praise him in glad adoration!

2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning
And, as on wings of an eagle, uplifting, sustaining.
Have you not seen All you have needed has been Met by his gracious ordaining?

Sing a New Song 607

Sing a new song unto the Lord; let your song be sung from mountains high.

Sing a new song unto the Lord, singing alleluia.

1. Shout with gladness! Dance fro joy! O come before the Lord.
And play for God on glad tambourine, and let your trumpet
