TODAY’S LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Sirach encourages his child to conduct all his affairs with humility. In the second reading, the author writes, You have not approached that which could be touched...no, you have approached Mount Zion. In the Gospel, while dining at the home of a Pharisee, Jesus tells a parable about a wedding banquet. He says that the one who humbles himself by taking the lowest place will be exalted. Humility helps us to see ourselves clearly and not to grasp at what is beyond our strength. Both the reading from Sirach and Luke’s Gospel tell us that those who humble themselves will find favor with God. They also point to a connection between humility and service. Those who give alms – who give without expecting repayment – will receive their reward in heaven.

TODAY’S RESPONSORIAL PSALM: God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, SEPT 7: Wis 9:13-18b; Ps 90: 4,5-6,12-13,14 & 17; Phlm 9-10,12-17; Lk 14:25-33

WE ARE SLOWLY GETTING BACK TO NORMAL

We are still finding electronic components that were damaged in the devastating lightning strike that hit our church two and a half weeks ago, but the good news is that we are slowly getting the damaged items replaced. Live streaming of Masses will return starting this weekend and the sound system hopefully will be working. Because we had to get new equipment and control boards, we have lost all our settings, both for the video cameras and the sound system, so it will be a work in progress for the coming weeks as we set balances and various settings. Thank you Joe Manjack for all the time you have given to this endeavor to get us back to normal. Your efforts are certainly appreciated!
