

LES OTHELLUS

A NATYF TV Original

Written for the screen by Mario Pierre-Canel ~ Based on an original idea by Jean-Yves Roux

Format: 8 x 60 minutes

Genre: Family Crime Drama / Supernatural Thriller

Language: French, with English and Haitian Creole

Target Audience: Adult audiences drawn to prestige serialized drama, psychological thrillers, and elevated crime storytelling

LOGLINE

When a quietly ambitious adoptee from Northern Quebec is summoned to the funeral of the biological grandmother he never knew, he discovers he is heir to a powerful criminal dynasty haunted by blood secrets, spiritual forces, and a legacy that may either crown him or destroy him.

SERIES SYNOPSIS

Les Othellus is a premium serialized drama that blends family saga, supernatural tension, and organized crime into a dark and emotionally charged story about identity, inheritance, and moral choice. The series follows Xavier Durocher, a man raised by a loving adoptive family in Quebec, whose life is upended when he is called to the funeral of Céleste Othellus, the biological grandmother he never knew. What begins as a search for answers quickly becomes an initiation into the world of the Othellus family, a powerful Haitian dynasty whose empire spans legitimate business, criminal influence, and generations of buried violence.

After Céleste's death, Xavier is named principal heir to the family empire, thrusting him into a ruthless internal war shaped by rival cousins, shifting loyalties, hidden murders, and a legacy of corruption that reaches back to his own origins. As visions of Céleste begin to haunt and guide him from beyond the grave, Xavier is forced to confront the truth about his bloodline, the murder of his biological parents, and the role he was always meant to play in the family's future.