

CELEBRATING INDIA ON THE 75TH REPUBLIC DAY

India a country known for her divine culture,
Her beauty so aesthetic than any other.
The country for which sacrifices were made,
Every Indian honors and respect them to this day.
The heroes of our heavenly motherland laid their lives
Just to make sure that we live a free life.
Every Indian should remember,
That they died fighting in rainy Augusts and wintery Decembers.
Every year on January 26th,
India celebrates Republic day,
A day with its sentimental parades,
Which leaves a deep impact and its memory never fades.
At Amar Jawan Jyoti, a moment of silence is a sight,
To honor our fallen soldiers and their lives.
As the president hoists the tricolour flag,
feeling of pride surges
in our hearts, souls and minds.
This day is so memorial that in every mind its memory replays.
Wishing you all a very Happy Republic Day!
