

WITH LOVE TO BLESSINGS OF MY LIFE

I don't have words to express my gratitude,
You made me smile in the saddest mood.
Whenever I cried, you wept,
Didn't sleep until I slept.
For me you ignored that dress,
On my sick days you'd be stressed.
Oh Lord, what have I done,
That you gave me this wonderful woman.
She isn't just my mother,
But a unique person; not like others.
Just like her is a man,
Who never took me off his lap.
He'd surprise me with toys,
But I always played with him which
Sometimes left him annoyed.
From pram rides to late night ice-creams,
He fulfilled all of my dreams.
Dad, I was just an ordinary person,
But you always made me feel like a princess of a kingdom.
Whatever I'm today is all because of both of you,
I have so much to say, but all that I can say right now is Thank You!
