President's Corner

Greetings,
Hopefully everyone has been out and caught some fish by now, if you haven't its time! The migration is in full swing and as I type there is a body of fish showing out front in south jersey moving north.

The gators are beginning to make their appearance in the normal locations so hopefully the members heading out to the sedge will have a great trip!

This meeting, Jason from Fishermen's supply will be our guest speaker, he will be talking about fluking from the beach just in time to start thinking about gulp and buck tails!!

If you haven't already done so, please like and share the spring tournament flyers on face book and Instagram. The more interactions we have with the post/ad the more people will see it moving down their time line.

I look forward to seeing everyone at Wednesdays meeting!!
John
