

PHARAOH OF THE EXODUS

AMENHOTEP II

Checklist of Archaeological Evidence

One has presented the Assertion of how the Blood Moon of -1448 BC is what one is convinced occurred the Night after the Passover in Egypt. One has received some Feedback saying that it was the Sign of the -1446 BC Year instead. Perhaps. But one then is using it to Triangulate and confirm the 32 AD Crucifixion Blood Moon that occurred on that same Day, etc. So, one's Logic is that it occurred within the same 24 Hour Period.

If this -1448 BC Exodus Date is accurate, it just will reassure one's Supposition of how Astronomy can be used to corroborate such Prophetic Events. What also provides a Confirming Witness is Archaeology. And? So, Joel Kramer, an Archaeologist from the YouTube Channel called Expedition Bible did a Synopsis of how the Presenter actually got an Opportunity to go into the very Chambers of the Burial Tomb of Amenhotep II. It is in the Valley of the Kings, 35.

The Researcher, Joel Kramer, essentially went over a 'Check List' of what had to be in place in order for the Pharaoh of the Exodus to be the most likely Candidate. Based on his Research, it was Amenhotep II. One is convinced of his Work and how the Evidence he provided and goes over is Proof that Amenhotep II was indeed the Exodus Pharaoh. And? If this is proven, it challenges the Prevailing Egyptology Narrative. Here is the Online Link to the Video, which one highly recommends viewing.

In the Video Presentation, the Date of the Exodus was touched upon briefly. This is the only Data Point one does dispute. It is because one's Timing of the Exodus is based on the Astronomy of the Event that one has presented. The Date suggested for the Exodus by the Researcher is -1446 BC. Perhaps.

This Date is the prevailing Date for the Exodus, among many others. This Date then would correspond to the -1406 BC Crossing of the Jordan River. And in so doing, many Bible Students are using that -1406 BC Date as the Year Count to determine the Jubilee Years. In that case, the Year 2025 is when the 70th Jubilee occurs, etc. However, as one has presented, there was a Blood Moon in -1448 BC,

Checklist of Evidence

One is more convinced that this was the Year when the actual Exodus occurred. And? This 'Correction' would prove the -1446 BC Exodus Date as incorrect. This would then counter the Notion that 2025 is a Jubilee Year that some are then asserting that it is when the 70th Week of Daniel is to begin on Nisan 10, because of it.

One is seeing how the Calculation to that Last Prophetic Week of Years is to perhaps begin in 2025, but it would begin in the Fall Time-Frame. And it is also because of the Blood Moon of 32 AD Crucifixion Year Theory. Perhaps. Here is the 'Check List' that was gone-over in the Video and presents a very compelling set of concreted Proofs, all based on verifiable Archaeology.

PHARAOH OF THE EXODUS IS AMENHOTEP II

Checklist of Evidence

1- MUMMY OF AMENHOTEP II'S WAS FOUND IN TOMB. CHECK.

The Name of 'Amenhotep II' on the Shroud confirming the True Identity of Pharaoh.

2- PREDECESSOR OF EXODUS PHARAOH HAD A VERY LONG REIGN. CHECK.

Thutmosis III, the Father of Amenhotep II reigned for 54 Years. Moses had to wait 40 Years in Midian before returning back to Egypt to confront the Exodus Pharaoh, Amenhotep II.

3-BODY OF A PHARAOH WAS COVERED WITH BOIL-LIKE SORES. CHECK.

Amenhotep II was the only Pharaoh in all of the Valley of the Kings that was covered with these Boil-Like Sores. It is consistent with the Plagues of Moses.

4-SON OF AMENHOTEP II, DIED AND WAS BURIED IN SAME CHAMBER. CHECK.

His Name was Webensenu which means 'Rising Brother' in Ancient Egyptian. He was an Egyptian Prince of the 18th (6-6-6) Dynasty. He died around 13 Years Old. His Name was inscribed on a Funerary Statue and also on a Canopic Jar and donned a Prince's Hair Lock.

The Question was asked by the Researcher, 'Why is this not the most Famous Tomb from the Valley of the Kings? It should be and yet it is closed and People do not know about it'. The Answers are rather straightforward. The Egyptian Antiquities do not want such an Archaeological Confirmation to become famous. Why not? This Discovery and Proof would prove the Bible to be True, that there was an Exodus, a Moses, a Tabernacle, and Ark of the Covenant. It would prove the Wilderness Journey, the Parting of the Red Sea, and the Manna, etc.

It would paint Egypt in a Humiliating Position as YHVH judged and destroyed Egypt's 10 'Gods' in Divine Judgment. And if the Exodus is True then Genesis is True and the Human Species did not 'evolve' from a Primordial Soup, from the 'Goo to the Zoo to You', as they say. It would also validate Israel's Right and Claim to the Promised Land. And Egypt being a Muslim Nation cannot 'Go There'. Ultimately it would prove that YHVH is the GOD of Creation and the True GOD that judges and holds Humans accountable.
