This study is about Israeli's 7-Front Wars. Sunni Islam would rather see Iran destroyed at the hands of Israel as they fear a Nuclear Iran far worse than a Nuclear Israel. Here is the difference. Sure, Israel has Nuclear Weapons. Israel does not acknowledge possessing such Weapons nor will it allow any U.N. Inspectors to verify any. Yet the Israelis demand all that of Iran. Hypocrisy? The difference is that Israel uses the Nuclear Weapons as their Samson Option. It does not threaten her Muslim Neighbors with Nuclear Annihilation just because of their Jewish Theology and Eschatology. Iran does.

This is the rationale for why Israel had to attack on June 13, 2025. Iran's Nuclear Rhetoric against Israel was and is an Existential Threat to Israel. It is the same rationale they had in the 6-Day War of 1967. The various Muslim Armies were just Days if not Weeks away from a Coordinated Attack against Israel as they had done in 1948. So, for Israel to have to wait until Iran possesses an actual Nuclear Device and the Missiles to carry that to Israel is not a circumstance Israel can accept nor should.

And like a Husband in a bad Marriage, Israel can never win or do anything right. Israel is willing to engage and put its entire Population on the line and suffer the criticism of the World for it. As the Bible foretells, Israel, Jerusalem and the Temple Mount have become like a Stone of Burden in how the entire World would be 'Drunk' about it all. This has come to pass. So, the rest of the Muslim Nation fear a Nuclear Shi'ite Iran. They fear the Shi'ites more than they fear Israel. And what the World and the U.N. has not reported is that Iran has targeted the Israeli Civilian Population.

That is a War Crime, as much as the entire World complains about Israel doing that to Gaza. The World is now 'Drunk' with Israel and wanting Jerusalem and the Temple Mount as the Bible states will happen in the Last Days. The entire World has now gathered as one primarily in Europe and the USA against Israel. There have been massive Pro-Palestine Protests and now Iran 'Ceasefire'. Europe has lost its mind as these rallies are organized by Communists and Leftists.

It seems now that the Leftists and Islamists, the 'Red and the Green' Alliance have teamed-up against the Jews and any Christian support for Israel. This is going as the Islamization of Europe continues with Churches being converted into Mosques and Grooming Gangs running amuck. Yet, as reported by some, it is in Lebanon, Syria and Iran where the highest per-capita of People coming to Jesus is occurring. It is, perhaps, that last Harvest before the Rapture Event. But coming from a Military Perspective, one is aware that the IDF can only do so much in comparison to what Israel is up against.

The Burden of Jerusalem

You are only as 'Strong as your weakest Link', as they say. But seeing Israel wipe-out Iran's F-14 Tomcats on the airstrip was painful to see those jets go up in smoke. They had such a nostalgic design and legacy for a Fighter Jet designed in the 1960s. Even though most of what was left of the fleet was not operational, perhaps Israel did it out of spite. It was symbolic.

So, Israel is battle-hardened and it has too because of the Prince of Persian. Is Israel tired and shellshocked? Israel is fighting now on 7 Fronts. Tiny Israel is having to fight against Giant Islam. It is fair to say that no other Nation on the Planet presently is enduring this type of onslaught. It is Biblical in scope and Prophetic in its outcome.

And have it be known that Israel is doing so while still fighting a 7 Front War against her. As shared, Mars the Planet of War conjoined the Royal Star of Regulus in Leo on June 17, 2025. It highlights the Focal Point of the Celestial Conjunction to suggest its maximum impact has occurred. As the Israel-Iran War is intensifying, perhaps the Sign is signaling that there is going to be a Turning Point in the War.

2. Lebanon
3. Syria
4. West Bank (Judea and Samaria)
5. Iraq
6. Yemen
7. Iran

It is utterly astonishing to witness what Israel, the Young Lion has done to the mighty Iranian Islamist Regime. Tiny Israel has put the entire prideful Nation to flight. Israel is making Military History as reports state that this Operation Rising Lion took 20 Years in the making. The MOSSAD penetrated the Iranian Intelligence and Command at the highest levels using MOSSAD Operatives and Iranian Assets.

Israel stated that they are going to go for the 'Head of the Snake'. In order for the War to end, Israel has to eliminate the Grand Mullah. Israel must illuminate Khamenei as they did with the Leaders of HAMAS and Hezbollah. Nonetheless, Israel has decimated and eliminated the Heads of HAMAS and Hezbollah. It fostered the conditions for the Assad Regime to fall. But this would be the chance for the Iranians to take to the Streets and finish bringing down the Islamic Dictatorship. Hopefully, this is when the People of Iran have a chance to act and take back their country.

Consider the following comparison in Israel and Old Persia's Coat of Arms. When Netanyahu named the IDF Military Operation against Iran the 'Rising Lion', it also became entangled with the Royal Lion of Persia that has a Sun Rising over its back. It has been Prophetic in one's estimation of just how these 2 Ancient Peoples have risen-up in these Last Days. The Jewish People, although regathered back to the Promised Land in unbelief after World War 2, per Ezekiel 26-27 are increasingly turning to YHVH.

Jeremiah 49 Prophecy against Elam

There cannot be no 'Deals' or go back to the Nuclear Talks and Negotiations. That opportunity is long gone and the Mullah's will never capitulate because their Religion forbids it. It is about all or nothing. And like with HAMAS in Gaza and Hezbollah in Lebanon, Islam would rather see every one of their Children blown to bits before they surrender to any Deals. It is also a tactic to garner the sympathy of the World as they claim 'Genocide'. In reality it is Islam that calls for the Genocide of Israel. Why? The Prince of Persia. So, Israel has decimated Iran with its phenomenal Military.

However, Iran may be 'Down' but not 'Out'. It will now take Years for Iran to come back into the fight against Israel. For example, after destroying the Natanz Nuclear site, why has the IDF not struck Iran's live reactor at Bushehr? A strike on a live nuclear reactor could unleash radioactive leakage. It would be capable of endangering civilian populations throughout Iran. This will depend on the severity of the Radiation Breach. Iran will return, but it is when they will align themselves as part of that Outer-Ring of Muslim Nations that will invade Israel during the Ezekiel 38 War.

So, from a purely Political Science and Military point of view, this humiliation of Iran will surely foster a need for Iran to align itself with the Gog-Magog Muslim Alliance. This War is what one calls the Gog-Mag War 1. The other Gog-Mag War 2 occurs at the end of the Millennial Kingdom, etc. But with the Israel-Iran War, this thought came to mind. The 3 Purim Lunar Eclipses of 2024-2025-2026, in hindsight were perhaps signaling the Time-Frame of the Israel-Iran War. The theme of Esther as Israel and the Persian Empire as Iran has reverberated down the centuries, even up to today.

1) March 24, 2024: Purim – Partial Lunar Eclipse

2) March 14, 2025: Purim – Total Lunar Eclipse (Blood Moon)

3) March 3, 2026: Purim – Total Lunar Eclipse (Blood Moon)

As mentioned, the Bushehr Nuclear Site in Elam has not been targeted by the Israelis, as of yet. But perhaps if and when they do, that could be the fulfillment of the Jeremiah 49 Prophecy against Elam. It will be on the same disastrous level as Chernobyl. As to the sequence of when will the Isaiah 17 Prophecy of the destruction of Damascus occur? A possible scenario could be based on what is a Conspiracy Theory about it. Iran, at this point in time may not be able to launch their Nuclear Warhead at Israel.

But if Saddam Hussein did indeed transfer 1 or 2 Nukes to Syria, that they were able to developed then they are stored underground in the Damascus Airport area. Thus, out of desperation Iran could signal Syria's new President to launch it against Israel. This could then prompt the Preemptive Nuclear Strike by Israel once Intel is verified about it based on the Doctrine of the Samson Option, etc. What all these latest wars in the world are about is sadly about just how Nuclear they will be. It is just a matter of Time before 1 of them goes off. Here below is the chart one has shared to show that with just 3 Nuclear Detonations in Israel, it will wipe-out over 90% of all the Jews.
