As a Political Scientist, the following Summary by Mr. Charlie Kirk of the Christian Origins and Premise of the U.S. Constitution is by far the best one has heard to one's Delight. As one who is also an Advisor to University Students, and of Political Science Majors at Sonoma State University, one can attest that the Summary given by Charlie Kirk would alone merit his Bachelor's in Political Science.

Sadly, one would find it hard pressed to find a Political Science University Graduate who could articulate why a Nation based on Christian Principles is the best Form of Government. Here is the Transcript of Mr. Kirk's Response to the following Statement, of a mis-attributions that the USA was not founded on Judeo-Christian Precepts but Western Enlightened Liberal Ideals.

STATEMENT BY A MEMBER OF THE AUDIENCE

I was articulated Yesterday, by a couple of my Friends, that our Country was not founded on Christian Principles. Our Country was founded on Common Law, because the Declaration only refers to GOD 4 Times in the Constitution. It doesn't refer to GOD at all. And it only articulates the Structure of Government.

REPLY BY CHARLIE KIRK

Remember that we were a Collection of States and Colonies. And you need to read the State Constitutions before anything else. 9 Out of 13 of the Original States required you to be a Bible-Believing Christian to serve in Government, at the time of the Founding. ...Even in, 13 actually, 13 out of 13 required a Declaration of Faith. 9 out of 13 required you to be a Protestant, except Maryland which was Catholic, which still required a Declaration of Faith.

In almost every single one of the Original State Constitutions, Pennsylvania included, they had, 'I profess Lord and Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior' in the Original State Constitutions. So, remember we're a Collection of States before that. Secondly 55 out of 56 of the Original Signers of the Declaration were Bible-Believing, Church-Attending Christians. You ask about Common Law? So, Common Law is inherited from Blackstone, who was Christian. A Common Law is an outgrowth of the Scriptures. So, let's go to 3 Principles of Common Law.

1. Presumption of Innocence

2. Due Process and

3. Jury of your Peers

All 3 are Biblical Principles. So, and all wrapped into the Ultimate Biblical Principle, that 'You shall not favor Justice, if you are Rich or Poor', which is in Leviticus 19. Right before the most famous part of Leviticus 19, which is that 'You should love your Neighbor as yourself'. But before that, is that in the Administration of Justice, 'You shall not favor the Rich or the Poor', which is the Idea of 'Blind Justice'. We get that in the West, which is incorporated also in the New Testament Ideal, 'Neither Slave nor Greek nor Jew, you are all one in Jesus Christ', which got the Idea of Human Equality.

These are all Biblical Ideas. They're not Enlightenment Ideas, which they kind of get conflated at Times. But more importantly than that, they say that GOD was only mentioned 4 Times in the Declaration of Independence? Well that's a Big Deal, OK? Laws of Nature' and 'Nature's GOD'. The last paragraph of the Declaration reads as a Prayer. It says. 'We appeal to the Supreme Judge of the Universe'. Who's the Judge of the Universe? Jesus Christ, as it says in Revelation; that Jesus will judge the Earth on His Throne. So, in the Declaration, they were praying to Christ Our Lord as a Prayer, very specifically.

Thirdly, as I said on stage Yesterday, Deuteronomy was by far the most quoted Book, Religious or Non-Religious in the Time of the Founding, when they were putting together the Constitution. More than John Lock, more than Montesquieu, more than Blackstone. So, the Book of Deuteronomy, which talked about Laws, Customs, Traditions, it was Moses 'Farewell Address', as he's, you know about to say 'Good-Bye', say 'Hey, Good Luck in Canaan Guys!' Here's how you should set-up your Form of Government. But finally and most importantly, let's look at actually what the Founders said?

John Adams seamlessly said the Constitution was only written for Moral and Religious People. It was wholly inadequate for the People of any other. The Body Politic of America was so Christian and was so Protestant, that our Form and Structure of Government was built for the People that believed in Christ, Our Lord. One of the Reasons we're living through a Constitutional Crisis, is that we no longer have a Christian Nation. But we have a Christian Form of Government, and they're incompatible. So, you cannot have Liberty, if you do not have a Christian Population.

So, that's just a Surface Level Belief. So. then they'll go to the First Amendment, which has 2 Parts of the 1st Amendment, which get conflated. First of all, Separation of Church and State is not in the US Constitution. That is a Single Letter that Thomas Jefferson wrote in 1807 to the Danbury Baptist Convention in Massachusetts, assuring them that the Government would not come after the Church, OK? which is the opposite of what they would say.

However, that was then resurrected by the Warren Burger Court in the 60s where they said, 'Hey, you know, all of a sudden we're now going to make this as if it's the Constitution'. It does say in the Constitution; 2 things, which is The Establishment Clause and the Free Expression Clause. The Establishment Clause is that 'Congress shall make no Law prohibiting the Free Exercise thereof'. What they were most worried about was a Presbyterian or an Anglican or a Quaker Type Religion, taking over the Federal Government.

Instead, it was that there is not going to be a State-Run Religion or a State-Run Government. Did you know that one of the 1st Acts of Congress was Taxpayer-Funded Bible Printing and Distribution? Did you know that there were Church Services held in the Supreme Court Building, as late as the Jackson Presidency in the 1820s? But going back to this Idea of Separation of Church and State? And again, I could riff on about this Ad Nauseum, because it's just so ridiculous. Right?

Is that 'It's not Biblical because it's not constitutional' ...Because you go a layer deeper. People that even say that 'Do you believe in Separation of Morality In state?' Nobody does. So, all Laws are a Reflection of Morality. And all Morality comes from somewhere. There is no such thing as Neutral Morality. And we believe what the Founders believe because they put it in the Halls of Congress. They put it in the Supreme Court. And they put it all throughout the Country, which is that the Decalogue. The Ten Commandments is the Core Morality of how a Society and the Civilization should exist. Right? The Ten Commandments of every Person.

And finally, this is the Kicker. If the Founding Fathers were not Bible-Believing, Church-Going Christians, why did they put Leviticus on the Liberty Bell? Not John. Not Psalms. Not Proverbs. Not Genesis. Leviticus. Most Americans can't spell Leviticus. Leviticus 25:19, 'Proclaim Liberty throughout the Land, of which you are in'. It is one of the most Sinister most Unsubstantiated Lies that does not come-up against any sort of Academic Scrutiny, this Idea that the Founding Fathers were a bunch of 'Enlightenment Common Law Deists'. The Reason they hate it is because, if they ...the Reason they must say this, is that if we actually go back to our Christian Roots and we go back to where we once were, it is America's best hope for Revival and for a Great Future.

In Jest, one would even say that if one was a Pentecostal, one would say that Mr. Kirk was Prophesying about the USA. However, as to the 3 Principles of Common Law, guaranteed in the U.S. Constitution? it is so long as the Citizenry is Educated in the same Judeo-Christian Frame of Mind for the Guarantee of such Civil Liberties to continue to exist. It is when the People of such a Nation, as the USA ceases to live according to the Judeo-Christian Principles as codified in the U.S. Constitution.

It becomes incompatible for the Nation to survive, Socially, Religiously and Economically. And this is where the USA is at present, divided right down the Middle in all of these Factors that were noted. One would say that this Divide has been intentional and deliberate, calculated as the Luciferian of the World Elite are hampered by such Testimony and People. Why? The Christians, despite their Shortcomings, are the Restraining Force for all-out Evil to occur.

It is because this Body of Christ has within it, GOD the Holy Spirit. Now, this Spiritual Principle upon which the U.S. Constitution is modeled after goes for the same in other Nations. However, one would venture to say that the USA has been especially blessed, despite its National Sins. What the Colleges and Universities have done is to teach a Revisionist History of the USA and totally obfuscate the Christian Origins of its Government and the Great Awakenings, for example that swept the Colonies and then the Young Nation thereafter.

And as one can see now the Fruits of the Indoctrination of Anti-American and Anti-Christian and Jewish sentiment, the Natural Course of Action is Violence on the part of at least potentially half the Nation. And what does that Marxist Socialist Decay look like? Just visit any Democrat Major City in the USA. As a former Communist who visited the USSR in 1990, one can understand that at the core of their 'Manifestos' is pure Hatred and Violence. Take for example the Pro-Hamas University Protests, the Vandalism of Elon's Tesla's and fire-bombing of Dealerships and Fertility Clinics.

The Marxist Leftists resort to Violence. It is a prescribed tool to achieved their overthrowing of what they target: Family, Marriage, Gender, Religion, Morality Jesus, etc. Evidence? Such was the case with LGBT Girl who, armed with an AR 15 gunned down the Pastor of a Nashville Church, 2 other Staff and 3 other 9-Year Olds. All because they were Christians. And according to her Manifesto, doing it in the Name of then hoping she would be rewarded with a Blissful After-Life.

As a Former Communist, one can assure that such brainwashing is in line with Luciferianism. It is the Lie 1st believed by Eve in Eden. One would even dare say that Eve was the 1st Communist. Then there was the Assassination of Insurance CEO's, and the Israel Embassy Staff, one being a Christian about to be engaged to his Jewish Girlfriend, etc. And again, perpetrated by a Leftist deranged man shouting, 'Free Palestine'. All that has happened in the last 10 Years, are just the Symptoms of a Spiritual War that is brewing under the Surface.

One day, during the Tribulation Period, it will surface, all-out and be in the Open. Heads will literally roll as it was during the French Revolution Reign of Terror. What will really divide and devastate the World and the USA, in particular will be the Rapture Reset. Imagine the Chaos thereafter. But, as Kirk masterfully stated, the People of the USA are no longer compatible to live under a Christian-Based U.S. Constitution. And aside from a National Revival and returning to the GOD of the Bible, Divine Judgment awaits.

AMERICA IS A CHRISTIAN NATION!
