

Resources for Parents:

- 1. ASHA (American Speech-Language-Hearing Association) - Information on speech and language development:

www.asha.org

- 2. Speech Buddies - Tools and tips for practicing speech at home: www.speechbuddy.com

- 3. Mommy Speech Therapy - Free printables and activities for speech practice:

www.mommyspeechtherapy.com

- 4. Super Duper Publications - Fun games and resources for speech and language:

www.superduperinc.com

5. Talking Child - Resources and games to promote language development:

www.talkingchild.com

6. Reading Rockets - Strategies to support early literacy and language:

www.readingrockets.org

7. Pinterest Speech Therapy Activities - Search for fun and creative activities:

www.pinterest.com

8. YouTube Speech Therapy Channels - Search for speech exercises and tips for home practice.

9. Local Speech Pathologist - Consult LexiMind Speech Therapy Service for personalized guidance and assessment.

10. Library Books - Check out children's books that encourage repetition of specific sounds, like /r/ and /s/.