

Application for Vehicle Assistance

We understand the past few years have been a difficult year for families especially ones without a dependable vehicle. That's why we've made it our mission this year to provide a local Baldwin County family in need with a vehicle from our yearly collections. If you live in Baldwin County, AL and are working to better your opportunities but are struggling to find affordable transportation, we understand and can help.

If more information is needed to make our decision, we will contact you to set up an interview.
