

Non-Recourse Funding Disclaimer

Juris FundUS FL, LLC

Effective Date: September 4, 2025

Understanding Our Pre-Settlement Funding

At Juris FundUS FL, LLC, we provide pre-settlement funding as a non-recourse cash advance, not a loan. This disclaimer explains the nature of our funding to ensure transparency and clarity for our clients. By applying for funding with us, you acknowledge the terms outlined below.

What is Non-Recourse Funding?

Pre-settlement funding is a non-recourse cash advance based on the expected settlement or award of your legal case. Unlike a traditional loan, repayment is contingent upon the outcome of your case. This means:

- No Repayment if You Lose: If your case does not result in a settlement or award, you owe us nothing. There are no out-of-pocket costs or obligations to repay the advance.
- Repayment from Settlement: If you win or settle your case, repayment, including applicable fees and interest, is made solely from the proceeds of your settlement or award, as agreed in your funding contract.

Risks and Considerations

While pre-settlement funding can provide immediate financial relief, it comes with costs:

- Fees and Interest: Funding agreements include fees and interest, which vary based on the specifics of your case. These costs will reduce the amount you receive from your final settlement.
- Attorney Consultation: We strongly recommend reviewing the funding agreement with your attorney to ensure it aligns with your case and financial needs.

Our Commitment to Transparency

We are committed to clear and fair practices:

- We provide a detailed funding agreement outlining all terms, fees, and conditions before you sign.
- We comply with all applicable state and federal regulations governing pre-settlement funding.

- Funding is not available in states where prohibited, including Montana, Arkansas, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland, and Washington D.C.

No Legal or Financial Advice

The information on our website and in this disclaimer does not constitute legal or financial advice. Always consult your attorney before entering into a funding agreement to understand its implications for your case.
