DiSC Personality Assessments

Understand your team members personality styles so you can get them to do what you need them to do. Individual assessment fees begin at $75 (discounted group rates available). Group training session rates begin at $750 ($400 for virtual training) plus the assessment fee.

*This interactive training is a real game changer for supervisors and managers struggling with diverse employee personality styles and communication challenges.
Reduce turnover, improve engagement and increase productivity.*

Speaker

Hire a lively, direct, interactive, facilitated conference speaker focused on management training, leadership development and corporate culture. Rates are negotiable but generally begin $750 for most Florida based sessions.

Customized Service Needs

The HR Lady® will work with you to customize a training and consulting program with services and topics that are most impactful to your attendees.

Manager Training Is Vital. Why?

"50% of Americans have left a job in order to get away from their manager at some point in their career." - Gallup 2015.

Do not let this be your managers.

Recruiting good people is hard enough. Retaining great employees is even more difficult. Remove the top barrier of long-term retention by training your supervisors and managers to be fair, consistent and overall awesome. Your team will work together better and be more productive. Who doesn't want that?
