

Sportainment Modern

Slavery Statement

Effective Date: 14/05/2024 Last Updated: 10/06/2025

At Sportainment, we are committed to ethical business practices and ensuring that modern slavery, forced labour, and human trafficking have no place in our operations or supply chains. We embed these principles across Sportainment (sports & entertainment), including our divisions such as SporX (finance & tech), SportPharma (science & innovation)

1 Our Commitment

- ✓ Zero Tolerance Policy – We uphold strict ethical standards across all Sportainment initiatives and divisions.
- ✓ Global Compliance – We adhere to the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015 and international regulations to prevent exploitation.
- ✓ Supply Chain Transparency – We work exclusively with verified partners who share our commitment to fair labour practices.

2 Due Diligence & Risk Assessment

- Supplier Audits – We conduct regular assessments to ensure compliance with anti-slavery policies across all Sportainment operations.
- Employee & Partner Training – We educate our teams on identifying and preventing modern slavery risks.
- Reporting Mechanisms – We provide confidential channels for reporting concerns related to unethical labour practices.

3 Accountability & Continuous Improvement

- Ethical Recruitment – We ensure fair hiring and prevent exploitation in all employment processes within Sportainment.
- Industry Collaboration – We partner with global organizations to strengthen anti-slavery initiatives across sports, technology, finance, and science.
- Annual Review – We update our policies regularly to enhance protections and adapt to evolving risks.
