A former Swiss Re AG underwriter won her sex discrimination suit after she was left humiliated by a senior manager who told her "If I had breasts like yours I would be demanding too."

Julia Sommer was unfairly dismissed after suffering sexist treatment from her former boss, according to a ruling by an employment tribunal published Thursday. She'd said she was the victim of a "calculated campaign" to fire her.

London's employment tribunals are at the front line of unfair-dismissal claims between financial firms and employees, although sexual discrimination claims are often settled behind closed doors. In addition to damages, Sommer has asked the tribunal to consider an equal pay audit at Swiss Re, following in the footsteps of a broker at BNP Paribas SA, which is set to be published next month.

Re: Defendant's Motion for Temporary Injunction; F.S. 57.105 letter and motion directed thereto.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

This letter is provided to you, with an attached Motion for Sanctions, pursuant to F.S. 57.105, directed at Defendant's Motion for Temporary Injunction. Your motion contains numerous factual inaccuracies and is not supported by the law applicable to facts recounted in the motion.

The appended Motion for Sanctions has not been filed. However, if your motion is not withdrawn within 21 days of service of this letter, the attached Motion for Sanctions will be filed in accordance with F.S. 57.105. In that event, I will be retaining counsel to contest the motion at the upcoming hearing in October and will seek an award of attorney's fees and costs incurred in resisting the motion.

The Motion for Injunction is flawed in many critical aspects. The motion once again accuses me of stalking [REDACTED] an employee of Soho House. In fact, as you are well aware, [REDACTED] brought claims of stalking against me in a separate action seeking injunctive relief for alleged stalking. Her claims were so frivolous that Soho House declined to provide her with legal representation. I was compelled to obtain counsel and her claims were the subject of a trial in circuit court. At the conclusion of an evidentiary hearing, the Court found no probable cause and dismissed her Petition for Injunction. Nonetheless, you have realleged [REDACTED]'s discredited claims of stalking in support of your motion for injunctive relief. To the extent that the motion is based on those dismissed claims, relief is barred by the doctrine of collateral estoppel, having been considered in a prior legal proceeding adversely to the allegations contained in your motion.

Your Motion for Injunction is also flawed as it seeks to enjoin my communications with individuals and parties who are not litigants in the pending litigation. In effect you are seeking to enjoin my communication with third parties, in violation of my constitutional rights of speech and free association. You claim irreparable harm, when any third party with whom I may wish to communicate may simply refuse my calls (if any) or discard or otherwise ignore communications which I might generate. Should my communications cross a line, i.e. involve defamation or other tortious behavior, you have adequate legal relief available for slander, libel or tortious interference with business relationships. There is no justification for impingement on my constitutional rights or your attempts to muzzle my communications with third parties regarding the course of conduct of your client.

In regard to your allegation of trespass, I have rarely visited the public restaurant of the Soho House in any event that establishment holds itself out as a public accommodation open to the public. I am a member of the public. Denial of access to public accommodations again raises issues of constitutional ...orkelson...

Two published articles, daily mail Hollywood reporter reporter

Gloating, gleefully taking "Double the satisfaction"... The Soho House has A published business practice, of pleasure inflicting sadness on others, getting a kick out of disappointing prospective members... Then any reasonable person would conclude that the Soho House administration gets a triple or quadruple kick,... Out of kicking non-renewed members to the curb... As they did this in the cruelest fashion by keeping me Clueless... Treating me like a mushroom ( keeping me in the dark and feeding me manure ) Smiling to my face, "as if" everything was OK, every day for well over a month as I saw the membership director and general manager On a daily basis... as they knew My membership, was not renewed and well aware just how "clueless" I was ,, as I was Proposing A tennis and golf event, with the membership administrator planning on activities with us our house in the coming year .. this event had no chance ....because I had no chance and they knew it, all they had to do, was leave a letter for me at the front desk... Then I would've had my contractual obligation to a meeting... however when you have a corporate culture as I believe Soho house had with me... Of taking delight and others disappointment... I was an easy target... as a dyslexic with attention deficit I don't read emails my eyes off and skip them... however, the Americans With Disabilities Act does not apply to the Soho house they are exempt, just as in the contract you sign when your member, ,, The small print gives them the right to treat you in a fashion that gives them pleasure at the expense of your pain called Freudnshodda ,, without any recourse... Regarding the breach of contract to inform me, who uses their power with crazy, rules? Oh the Nazis they came up with that idea... They called them the Nuremberg rules... Then they got a kick out of imposing f' ftouddennshodda " .. Just as these paintings imply, the quadruple satisfaction, of keeping me clueless regarding my non-renewal.

... the key players reveal how they made it a success, why the Real Housewives will never get in and the vague rules for which creative types do make the cut: "The very worst people ... doubled our satisfaction in rejecting them

'But someone may have known they were cheating their boyfriend with a woman and were widely known to be an a**hole. That happened more than you know. It was discussed in committee meetings. was a great sense of doing the right thing.

~~They~~ said the worse the rejects were, the harder they took it - which gave some at Soho House immense satisfaction.

The point of the performance is to promote

1. Freedom of expression, through good sportsmanship, don't tread on me or my putting line, it is an impediment, like an injunction that is of constitutional proportion, as the Soho House attorney, put my project on the chopping block, your next production, project, or product could be next on the chopping block, if we don't advocate for freedom of expression! .. with the flight for freedom of expression, with the golf balls as the vehicle, because you don't need a pilots license to fly one.
2. Battery and domestic violence awareness, through interactive sports art,, with the golf club swing path, on the inside, the safe side .. that illustrates freedom from physical abuse is a human right, with the whimsical example of "Please, do not club seals or people" .. conduct your affairs with the civility and dignity of good sportsmanship, on this interactive Teebox for humanity ..

As the Soho House inspires amazing creativity, and the self- expression

It's a sad state of affairs, when the Soho house counsel conducts affairs On behalf, of the Soho house ,, That I find it to be an impediment, to 1st amendment freedoms of expression ,, as the withdrawn motion for injunction states, "of constitutional proportion".... this Reflects poorly on stockholders of booksellers, As a major stockholder of one of the nations largest booksellers, is on the Soho house board... his influence can be a big benefit, for freedom of speech with his influence at this bookseller... with application of, the muff program, of mutually unified fun and fortune, to address, DICK behavior in business where love transcends hate of, detrimental intentional cruelty of Knaives

Due to lying , about preserving a video,

The video of the beating I received they conveniently lost, I believe had I argued, and refuted the opening argument in the summary judgment, I said nothing and the judge prompted me but laughed, and because I didn't mention that, the video was a subject of spoil action of evidence ,, and if what the Soho house lawyer said that there was only a playful touch, this was not the case and. Many will attest ,, I have created a reenactment to set the record straight!

Not my finest hour, ill prepared for arguing the case, did not refute the opposing counsel's opening statement

That the battery was only being touched with a baguette when, everyone in the elevator was terrified including me, I didn't share this or the fact of the matter, that the Soho House fired the attacker, see attached document, nor did I mention there was a Spoilation of evidence regarding the video that I asked to be preserved, if this was only being touched certainly Soho house would've saved the video, to support the claim... Nevertheless, I failed as a pro se attorney, to mention any of the above, as Megyn Kelly speaks of in her legal show, if you don't refute an argument a judge or jury will believe anything... I learned this the hard way, the judge even asked me if there was anything I wanted to add I asked in what regard and she left that didn't sit well with me... Anyway a huge wipe out...

1. Spoilation of evidence... IF, what the attorney for Soho House said was true, then Soho house would not have lost the video tape of the brutal and relentless attack...

2. Termination of employee, if what the attorney for the sauce house said was true... That it was a non-attack then they would not have terminated the attacker...

3. Refusal to except evidence of exhibit A... By the judge from my failure to present... I and that if what the attorney for Soho House said was true... That the attacker was a subcontractor then, soho house would not have fired him but rather canceled his contract...

4. ~~not speaking up~~... Allows a judge or jury to believe anything... As is the case... Because I ASUMED BECAUSE ~~thought~~ the judge was familiar with the case and had ~~presented~~ this in front of a male judge in a closed-door meeting where I was comfortable with "locker room talk", but because the cat got my tongue... I wasn't comfortable with sort of catty, chatty in front of the gals, that's how sexism can influence a case, from a male perspective...

... about a brutal attack on my genitals in front of a female judge and the daughter of the opposing counsel... As I had already discuss that ,, with the previous judge IN A HEARING FOR MOTION TO DISMISS ~~When the case in a closed-door meeting~~ with a judge of the same sex and opposing counsel of the same sex was more conducive for full disclosure... Furthermore, the judge judge ~~was~~ ,, One would assume, (ass out of you and me) .. Was familiar with the case I don't think she was, as the case has been transferred to judge ~~judge~~ and she was stepping in as a substitute...

Mark Thorkelson, Promoting good sportsmanship On and off the Soho beach house Potunk court

Undefeated back to back SoHo house, Potunk champion .. applies sports etiquette to business ethics, with a Soho House pilot program... Your participation can benefit people profits and principles, ..., With interactive sports artwork, as you apply washable paint to sporting activities, creating a collaborative "action Jackson Pollock" painting, that's emblematic of your unique creativity, and the values and ideals , of good sportsmanship on and off the court, course, slopes and rink.

My humanitarian act at the Aspen Art Museum during a Hunter S Thompson exhibit, was to address the theft of my European trip... The Soho House revoked my European trip, that I won in a Potunk tournament.... As I was promoting the American dream with capitalism to better serve society... it was a secret filing like the one is so housemaid, it doesn't go over well in their own backyard , as I was prosecuted in a civil case. At least I have a legitimate claim to civil disobedience.

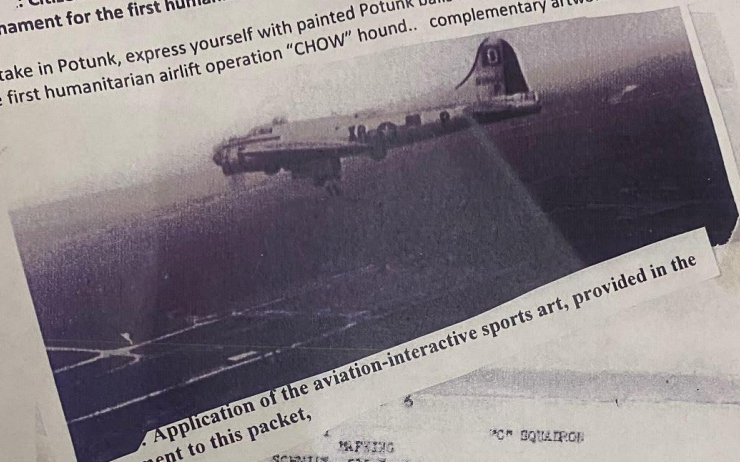

To "flight for freedom" ,
As Americans it's in our DNA ,, to fly a golf ball
you don't need to be a pilot...
