ARTIST CALL: Whose Step…?

Dance on the Shore Project is seeking paid movement artists and dancers to participate in Whose Step…?, a new performance project activating dance on the North Shore. You will be working with choreographers Virginia Duivenvoorden and Claire French.

We invite applications from artists working across all styles of dance, movement, interdisciplinary performance, and embodied practices. We are looking for artists who enjoy working collaboratively as well as those who are interested in improvisation and creative experimentation.
