Financial Aid Information

CDL Training Program

Fall 2022

STUDENT LOANS

There are private loan institutions that may provide personal loans to students looking for assistance to pay for CDL training. These loans normally require a credit check. If your credit score is a little low, sometimes having a cosigner will help your chances of approval. Getting a loan from a private lender is a common form of financial aid for truck driving school.

AID FOR MILITARY VETERANS

There are truck driver programs that specialize in truck driving for military veterans. Some companies even offer low-cost tuition just for veterans. Your military benefits may cover the cost of CDL training.

SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS

There are scholarships and grants available specifically for CDL training. Contact your local school and ask them about scholarships and grants that may be available. Here are a couple examples of scholarships just for truck driver training:

Howes Truckers of Tomorrow Scholarship:

$1,000 scholarships towards the tuition costs of attending selected SAGE truck driving schools.

WOMEN IN TRUCKING FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

AS THE NAME IMPLIES, THIS SCHOLARSHIP IS FOR WOMEN. THIS SCHOLARSHIP IS WORTH $500 TO $2,000 PER STUDENT. REMEMBER, MOST SCHOLARSHIP AND GRANT PROGRAMS LIKE THE PELL GRANT REQUIRE YOU TO HAVE A FAFSA ON FILE BEFORE YOU ARE CONSIDERED.

TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

SOME MAJOR CARRIERS OFFER PARTIAL OR FULL REIMBURSEMENT FOR THE COST OF YOUR CDL TRAINING. USUALLY, THIS TYPE OF REIMBURSEMENT COMES IN THE FORM OF SMALL PAYMENTS ADDED ON TO YOUR PAYCHECK OVER THE FIRST YEAR WORKING FOR THE COMPANY.
