

BRANCH Self-Pay Fee Schedule – Introduction & FAQ

Family Growth Center, LLC

At Family Growth Center, LLC, we are committed to transparency, accessibility, and high-quality care. This fee schedule reflects our self-pay rates offered through the BRANCH Program, which is designed to support access to services while maintaining consistent, ethical, and clinically appropriate care for all clients.

Self-pay fees fall within the ranges listed below and are determined based on financial considerations and availability. Placement within the BRANCH Program does not affect the quality, scope, or approach to care provided. All clients receive the same attentive, evidence-based services.

Exact self-pay fees are discussed and confirmed prior to scheduling to ensure clarity and shared understanding.

BRANCH Self-Pay Fee Ranges

- Therapy (Self-Pay): New Evaluation $90–$180; Follow-Up Sessions $75–$150
- Psychiatry (Self-Pay): New Evaluation $150–$275; Follow-Up Visits $115–$195

Frequently Asked Questions

Why are fees listed as ranges?

The BRANCH Program allows flexibility in self-pay pricing based on financial considerations and availability. Listing ranges provides transparency while allowing us to tailor fees thoughtfully and ethically.

Does my fee affect the care I receive?

No. All clients receive the same standard of care, clinician attention, and treatment approach regardless of self-pay fee.

Can I choose where I fall within the range?

Fees are determined collaboratively based on financial considerations and availability and are confirmed prior to scheduling.

Are BRANCH fees billed to insurance?

No. BRANCH fees are self-pay only and are not submitted to insurance.

Can fees change over time?

Fee schedules may be updated periodically. Any changes are communicated in advance.
