Antique is defined as items of an age of at least 100 years. If an item is definitively datable to 100 or more years in age, it is directly referred to as an antique."100 years or older".

Vintage is defined as an item that exhibits the best of a certain quality, or qualities, associated with or belonging to that specific era. In other words, for the term vintage to accurately apply to it, an item should be somewhat representational and recognizable as belonging to the era in which it was made. Vintage should not be used in reference to objects less than 20 years old. "20 years or older".
