This year's Master of Ceremonies for the Pasadena ISD Athletics Hall of Fame is KHOU 11's Matt Musil.

Matt Musil had an impressive 43-year career at KHOU 11 News before retiring in April 2024. Since joining KHOU11 in 1980, Musil wore many hats over the years. He served as the Sports Anchor, Sports Reporter, Executive Producer of Sports, Weekend Sports Anchor, and co-host of 11 News 'This Morning.'

A native of Frankfort, Kansas, Musil graduated from Kansas State University with a major in Radio-TV Journalism and a minor in coaching. He played football, baseball, basketball, and ran track in high school. Before turning his attention to the radio/TV business, he played baseball up to the semi-professional level.

Musil began his broadcast career at KNDY AM-FM in Marysville, Kansas and later worked at KWNS AM-FM in Pratt, Kansas. His first job in television was at KTVH-TV (CBS) in Wichita, Kansas. He later served two years as sports director at WTVM-TV (ABC) in Columbus, Georgia, before coming to KHOU-TV.

Musil is married and has three children and two grandchildren. He is involved with a number of local charitable organizations. Musil organizes and hosts two low-cost youth basketball camps each summer. One in West Houston and one downtown. His biggest contribution to the community is through his annual charity golf event which is held each fall. Over the past 22 years, The Matt Musil All-Star Golf Classic has raised close to $2,000,000 for Houston-area charities.
