

FABIO OBERTO Fabio Oberto — from the past to the future...

La Collina di Dioniso, The Hill of Dionysus, is the culmination of a dream that began in the vineyards of Fabio's father, Andrea Oberto. Pulling inspiration from Dionysus, the god of wine, ecstasy, and liberation of the senses, Fabio Oberto's La Collina di Dioniso brings together the vision, passion, and skill of his winemaking team to produce unforgettable wines of place. This Spumante Brut offers a lively stream of bubbles with clean citrus notes, backed by zippy, refreshing acidity.

Region & Classification

|country| Italy
|region| Piemonte

Wine Data

|varietal(s)| Glera blend
|alcohol| 11%
|residual sugar| 11 g/L

Terroir & Cultivation

|soil| Clay
|exposure| Southeast
|elevation| 150-200m
|farming practices| Organic & biodynamic farming practices
|harvesting| First 2 weeks of September
|age of vines| 15 years

Vinification & Aging

|fermentation| Charmat method
|aging| Aged 6 months in stainless steel followed by another 2 months in bottle before release

