PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

CORE VALUES

- We are, first and foremost, Christ-centered.

The end of Man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. Therefore, we are committed to honoring God alone in every aspect of our service.

- We value people.

Even though God's uses institutions, organizations, and buildings for his kingdom work, it is God's people that we are called to serve. Since Christ came to sacrifice his life for the sheep, we will strive to be people-oriented more than goal-oriented.

- We value relationships.

Programs, ministries, and projects are important tools to edify the people of God but they themselves cannot be the ultimate goal in ministry. We affirm that the source of good ministries is healthy relationships.

- We value unity and love.

God-given visions or personal callings are indispensable to faithfully carrying out the kingdom work effectively. However, we believe loving one another and walking in unity is the purpose of the Christian life and service. Therefore, we are committed to setting aside personal calling and sacrifice even the corporate vision when vigorous application of these brings discord and division. We believe God's glory is manifested whenever his children love one another and strive for unity.

- We value prayer to seek God's wisdom and blessings.

We believe the gift of administration is a supernatural gift of God and therefore spiritual. However, we believe that we are to balance good administration and planning with seeking God's will and His supernatural power through prayer. God is at work in our midst. Therefore, we will always strive to work where God is working and be attentive to new things that He is doing.

OPERATING PRINCIPLES

- We establish and implement specific goals and tactics, and secure the necessary resources, to drive increases in enrollment, graduation rates, faculty and staff productivity, fundraising, and service quality.
- We implement measurable standards and practices to deliver instruction, research, and student services, effectively and efficiently.
- We identify and invest in core strengths and the best strategic opportunities for the institution.
- We function in a transparent and collaborative fashion.
- We hold each other accountable in all we do.
- We are student-centered and community-engaged.
- We celebrate diversity.
- We commit to integrity.
- We invest in innovation, knowledge creation, and discovery.
- We dedicate ourselves to facilitating degree completion by our students.
- We prepare our graduates for lifelong learning and service through the eternal Word of God in a changing world.

COUNCIL MEMBERS - President's Council includes the following officers and staff members:²

- Academic Dean
- Dean of Urban Program
