

THE POLISH-AMERICAN ARTS ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON, D.C. was organized in 1966, as an affiliate of the American Council for Polish Culture, a national organization founded in 1948 for the preservation of Polish cultural, literary, and folk traditions in the United States. For membership and information, call 703-255-9645.

DR. LAURA KAFKA-PRICE is a multi-dimensional performing artist, scholar, and educator of Polish Heritage. She holds dual adjunct faculty appointments in French, musicology, and voice at the Peabody Institute of Johns Hopkins University and Towson University, as well as an active private voice studio.

POLISH DANCE GROUP OJCZYŻNA was formed in 1983 as a nonprofit cultural promotion group that strives to share its love of Polish folklore. In 2017, the group traveled to Rzeszów, Poland to be part of the world's largest international Polish folk festival, consisting of over 1,000 performers from 37 groups, representing 14 countries. The group's Managing Director is Michael Carnahan, at mlcarnahan@gmail.com.

PKM POLISH FOLK DANCE ENSEMBLE was founded in 1915. The group has proudly shared Polish Folk culture over 100 years! PKM's members bring together individuals of Polish heritage to celebrate their culture through traditional Polish Folk Dancing, while sharing it with the community. PKM performs at local and distant festivals, cultural events, and private events, and always welcomes new members! Contact email Pkmphiladancers@gmail.com or website Pkmdancers.com.

POLISH DANCE GROUP KRAKOWIAKI is a nonprofit group that was started after World War II (circa 1950) under the Polish National Alliance's Women's Division. Around 1971 the group took on its present name and became primarily sponsored by Lodge 339 of PNA. The group consists of members ranging from 4-26 years of age. Contact is Melissa Kalinowski at 443-839-3993.

THE BROTHERS-IN-LAW + BAND features Polish-American, other international, and cocktail music. The band is popular at weddings, family gatherings, parties, and international festivals. Contact Stasia Skrypczuk at 703-217-6189, 571-239-5483, or email at skryp77@aol.com.

The Polish American Arts Association of Washington, DC
presents

Festival of Wreaths Wianki

*Traditional Polish Summer Celebration
Saturday, June 23, 2018
6:00 pm At
Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool Steps*