

Elizabeth Keefe Biography

Elizabeth has been playing piano since the young age of six and singing since thirteen.

Having taken lessons, theory, and performing recitals with the Royal Conservatory of Music, she began performing professionally at the age of 26.

She played and sang in a number of bands during her early years, but her solo, professional playing took her around the world, playing Europe, Asia, the Caribbean, and across western Canada.

Her many engagements included “the 400 Club” in Calgary, where she was house, piano bar entertainer for two years, “Hy’s Steak House” house, piano bar entertainer in Calgary for one year, and at a variety of different dine and dance venues, including the “Rob Roy Room” and the “Alberta Room” banquet hall with an accompanying violinist, at the world famous Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel. She played for the annual Calgary Food and Beverage Association Christmas luncheon as well as the annual Christmas luncheon for the Petroleum Industry Wives Association, for two years in a row. Her strengths include smooth vocals, a lively piano, hilarious patter, and a “sing a long” booklet, with over 430 cover songs that include standards, pop, country, and classic rock favorites that is easily “downloaded” to smart phones. Novelty songs, hats, props, a tambourine, cow bell, and a hand drum, keep the crowd laughing and energetic with their enthusiastic, audience participation. She can capture video of your special sing-a-long event as well. She is happy to accommodate song requests or any songs needed to learn prior to your special event. She takes requests from her sing along book which is easily downloaded to your smart phone.

Weddings, birthdays, and sing along corporate parties are her specialty. Theme nights, costuming, decorations, and a Christmas song book are also available at your request. She is fully licensed and insured to perform at your venue.

Elizabeth is looking for investment and/or a partnership to create a brand new venue called “the Cove Piano Bar” which will offer seafood and song at this one-of-a-kind, sing-along, piano-bar venue. If interested in this new venue and wish to convert your present lounge or pub into this remarkable, new, potential, high volume patron idea, with Elizabeth as your exclusive, sing along, piano bar, house entertainer, please contact her @ 403-463-9295 or email her at shootingstar_productions@hotmail.com.

For investors, partnerships, and all mobile piano-bar bookings, please e mail Elizabeth @ shootingstar_productions@hotmail.com or phone or text her at: 403-463-9295
