Arapaima Lodge

Our lodge was built in the summer of 2021, hand made and cut from the standing trees right there onsite. The craftsmanship of the Amerindians is amazing. Each length of wood precisely cut with a chainsaw, using various hardwoods including Purple Heart and Green Heart.

The lodge has Two Showers, Toilets and wash basins. Clean Towels and Bed Linen provided daily. Laundry is done daily.

Bedrooms sleep two, based on double occupancy, we can cater up to 10 guests. Comfy mattress, mosquito (princess) nets and 110 wall sockets on hand for your equipment / camera charging needs.

Food, varies from traditional Guyanese and Amerindian meals prepared in the kitchen. Three meals a day including packed lunch and beverages. Snacks and fruit will also be provided.

Please let me know on booking if you have any Food allergies or special requirements.

A mixture of soft drinks, fruit juices, energy drinks, coke and coke zero will also be provided

Alcohol will also be included; however, this is normally limited to Guyanese / Brazilian beers dependant on availability. Spirits will also be included such as Rum. Again, please let me know if you prefer other drinks and I will check on availability prior to trip.
