

Race Ricketts

Bio

Decked in denim & toting an Allsup's burrito, Texas Country artist Race Ricketts is the mouth piece of the 940 area code he proudly calls home.

This singer songwriter is classically trained in acting from the University of Oklahoma, bringing his effortless stage presence and affinity for storytelling to the forefront of his live performances. His songwriting (& wardrobe) influences include Guy Clark, Jason Isbell, Jerry Jeff Walker, & the Drive-By Truckers which is apparent in singles like 940 & Ricketts' staple jean button down.

Beyond Young County, Ricketts is also part of a powerhouse trio with Presley Haile & Nick Brumley out of Hamilton, Texas. The three are known for smooth harmonies, exemplary & award-winning songwriting, & the ability to truly stop time with their captivating vocal cords. Race Ricketts is a prime example of where hard work & dedication to craft can take a small town kid & he's just getting started.
