about us

Harlequin Headboards and Upholstery Ltd was established in 2019, continuing an unbroken partnership with Andrew and Nicholas who joined Harlequin Headboards Ltd in 1981 and 1992 respectively. Having over 39 years experience in the trade, Andrew and Nicholas are continuing in the same traditions after the retirement of the former business to form their own company and this brochure outlines some of the things they produce.

Manufacturing with the best materials available allied to a skilled and conscientious staff and care in both construction and delivery, we have been supplying the retail trade, care homes, hotels, universities and interior designers throughout the world. As well as producing standard size headboards, stools and ottomans, we can make any of our products to customers individual specifications in any of our fabrics or customers own materials subject to fire regulations.

We do work with customers and designers to produce special one-off items, working from both pictures and CAD drawings to produce small headboards to the covering of the whole wall for hotels, lodges, ski chalets, stately homes and private dwellings incorporating lighting, sockets and switches along with ottomans, stools and window seating to match.

We believe in genuine customer service, so please email us, call us, or write to us, which ever you are more comfortable with, if you would like more information on any of our products and services .
