

so called

Constricted Green - a focal infection in most cases. any point of infection from which pus is exuding or toxins being absorbed into general system will first register its presence as a marked contraction of entire Green field.

constricted Red - general systemic

Blue - organic

Myoculator

Diagnosis -

1- Visual acuity

(A) direct

(B) Indirect {

3° - $\frac{20}{70}$

5° - $\frac{20}{80} + \frac{20}{100}$

10° - $\frac{20}{250} + \frac{20}{300}$

20° - $\frac{20}{800}$

Movement field

2- Perimetry or color fields

~~Red~~

3- Vergence Field