1. Be respectful to all visitors and customers.
2. Fake snow makes a mess and is not permitted unless biodegradable.
3. Remove all props when you are done.
4. No area may be blocked to customers during a photo shoot. Christmas trees are our business and you must accommodate our customers looking for a tree.
5. Vehicles are not allowed in Christmas tree fields under ANY circumstances. If you are shooting in a field and have props, we recommend bringing a wagon or cart.
6. Wagner Christmas Tree Farm staff are not responsible for directing clients to your specific photo shoot location. Please be sure your client has your contact information and any other helpful information (ie. Vehicle make/model) so they can be sure to locate you. Unhappy clients have approached us asking where their photographer is located. Especially if it is a busy weekend, we recommend having a clear plan of where to meet your clients.
7. Photographers may arrive up to thirty (30) minutes early to set up. This time will not count toward the time allotted in your purchased photo shoot time. You may make a separate visit before your session date to get photos to help advertise your sessions; you will not be charged for this time.
8. ALL PHOTOGRAPHERS MUST REGISTER BEFORE TAKING PHOTOS AT WAGNER CHRISTMAS TREE FARM. This includes professionals, serious amateurs, hobbyists and nature photographers. It includes those of you for whom photography is not your primary source of income. It does not include a family member or friend taking snapshots while you are tree shopping/tagging/cutting.
9. Dogs are permitted, but must remain on a leash, and any pet waste must be cleaned up.
10. No storage of props, supplies or equipment from day to day, or overnight.
11. Do not leave items unattended. We are not responsible for any lost, stolen or broken items.
12. There are no public restrooms on site prior to the beginning of the tree selling season, so plan accordingly.
13. Payment is due at the time of booking.
14. Children must be monitored at all times for their own safety.
