

Commander Emery's Project

"Beyond the War" in Ohio — A Veteran Advocacy Initiative

"Beyond the War" is a nonprofit founded by Bradley Porter to address veteran suicide and promote alternative treatments, with notable success in Ohio

Welcome to Beyond the War!!

We would like to thank the commander of the Sons of AMVETS Scott Emery for allowing us to support the AMVETS in this battle against mental health.

Let us keep fighting! Let's turn 22 to zero!

-We are a charity that is comprised of Veterans and Medical professionals leading the way in Ohio and Boston Massachusetts for alternative treatments to end veteran suicide.

- Currently we focus on linking veterans to Psychedelic therapies and Stellate Ganglion Blocks to reduce PTSD symptoms and give veterans hope!

-We can't wait on bureaucracies to solve the 22 veteran a day issue..... And lose more veterans waiting.....or we can solve it today with Beyond the War!

-These treatments work, and it's our life's goal to make them accessible. That starts with YOU! We need your help as a 501c.3 to continue our mission.

-Please email us you would like to know how you can support these life saving measures to make them accessible to veterans who are struggling every day.

-We must deal with the war in our minds, as veterans, we must go.....Beyond the War.

Mission and Focus

Bradley Porter, a veteran advocate and graduate of American Military University with a Master's in Homeland Security, started "Beyond the War" to find and support alternative, non-traditional approaches to ending veteran suicide. The organization focuses on reducing the stigma around mental health issues among veterans and connecting them with effective, compassionate care

Impact in Ohio

Porter reports “amazing results” with veterans in Ohio, indicating that the initiative has successfully reduced suicide rates and improved mental health outcomes for participants. The work is grounded in both personal experience and a commitment to community-based solutions

Connection to Military History

Ohio has a deep military heritage, having contributed heavily to major U.S. conflicts from the Civil War to modern deployments www.wonderfulmuseums.com. This history underscores the importance of supporting veterans, as Ohioans have long served in the armed forces and are part of the state’s identity.

How to Get Involved

While the provided information does not list specific events or volunteer opportunities, “Beyond the War” likely engages with veterans’ organizations such as the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and community health initiatives.

Interested individuals can:

- Follow Bradley Porter’s LinkedIn profile for updates
- Contact the organization directly to learn about volunteer, donation, or partnership opportunities.
- Attend local veteran support events or mental health awareness programs in Ohio.

In summary: “Beyond the War” is a targeted, Ohio-based nonprofit addressing a critical veteran health issue through innovative, stigma-reducing approaches, with measurable success in the state’s veteran community

saber822003@yahoo.com