Captain's Log

Hello fellow Parrotheads!

The captain has temporarily gone missing but prior to his disappearance he has wished all you Parrotheads a Merry Christmas and Happy Holiday. I am confident that he will be located and returned to the fold by the annual Christmas Party to be held on the 14th of this month as he and the first parrot have been known to never miss a good party.

Since I have space to write a few words in his absence I would like to take this opportunity to report that this edition of the Parrot Times will be the last for Mary and I as your editor. As most of you are aware, we are riding the sunset to Florida to enjoy the sandy white beaches, emerald green waters and rum. We have both enjoyed publishing the newsletter over the past few years and appreciate all the help and support you have given us. We will remain members of the club and contribute articles and pictures of parrothead happenings on the Gulf Coast.

We are turning over the newsletter responsibilities over to the capable hands of Mac McReynolds who I am sure will provide you with an outstanding letter. I hope you give him the support that you have given us.

So, Lets keep partying on with a purpose and keep the Left Coast Parrothead life alive.

Fins UP!

2019 Christmas Party

Micky will again host our Christmas party this year at her house in Santa Rosa Valley. We hope everyone will be able to make the festivities this year as we plan to spread plenty of Christmas Cheer. You all should have received an invite in your email that has all the information you need about the time and address of the party. Please bring an appetizer or dessert to add to the “Pot Luck”.

This year we will be supporting Mana among other charities. Please bring with you some canned goods to donate. Our President has also requested that anyone who has spare glasses around the house, gather them up and bring them to the meeting. They will be donated to a local charity that can recycle them to help the needy. I know all us who wear glasses have numerous old glasses laying around the house. I was amazed at how many we found looking around.

We are also asking members who may have spare items around the house and see something interesting parrothead related to bring it to the meeting to and donate it for a raffle. Money raised will be donated to the Wounded Warriors in Mammoth in memory of John Foy.

And last, let's not forget the gift exchange. If you want to participate, bring a gift valued at around $25. We will have our usual Phun and Exciting “White Elephant” exchange by the numbers where gifts are swapped, hidden and stolen.

Hope to see you all there. Great Friends, Great Food and Great Giving make it Truly a “Party with a Purpose”.
