Facts Don't Lie: Barington Capital Sends Letter to Matthews International Shareholders
Debunking the Company's False Narratives and Reinforcing its Case for Change

Highlights Matthews' Longstanding Culture of Deceit Most Recently Evidenced by its Meandering and Misguided 68-page Presentation

Believes Matthews' Status Quo is Untenable and the Election of Ana Amicarella, Chan Galbato and James Mitarotonda is Required to Drive Much-Needed Change and Long-Term Value Creation

Urges Shareholders to Vote the GOLD Proxy Card "FOR" the Election of ALL of Barington Capital's Nominees

NEW YORK, January 30, 2025 – Barington Capital Group, L.P. ("Barington Capital"), a fundamental, value-oriented activist investor that, together with the other participants in its solicitation (collectively "Barington" or "we"), beneficially owns approximately 1.9% of the outstanding shares of common stock of Matthews International Corporation (NASDAQ: MATW) ("Matthews" or the "Company"), today sent a letter to the Company's shareholders highlighting the excuses, half-truths and lofty promises Matthews recently published in a meandering and blatantly misguided 68-page investor presentation.

The letter also details what Matthews shareholders stand to endure if the Company maintains the status quo and why Barington believes the election of Ana Amicarella, Chan Galbato and James Mitarotonda to the Matthews Board of Directors (the "Board") is critical to unlock the Company's full value potential.

The full letter is available at <https://barington.com/matthews>

James Mitarotonda, Chairman and CEO of Barington Capital, said, "We believe shareholders deserve to know the facts about Matthews' performance and leadership as well as the rationale for Barington's campaign for change. Simply put, the Company has failed to take any action over the last 18 years to simplify its portfolio, conduct a strategic review, reduce costs or indebtedness, or address Board independence. We find it deeply troubling that the Company would seek to obfuscate these facts rather than take accountability.

"Only after Barington notified Matthews of its intention to launch a proxy contest did the Company seemingly begin to take action, which we believe to be a desperate attempt to maintain the status quo and further entrench the Board. Facts don't lie. We encourage all shareholders to protect their investment in Matthews by electing Ana Amicarella, Chan Galbato and James Mitarotonda to the Board by voting the GOLD proxy card today."
