The Twelve Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous

1. Our common aim should be the personal recovery of each member of A.A. with no thought of self-interest.
2. A member gives personal help to his or her fellow members, a helping hand to the new comers, and a helping hand to the old-timers.
3. The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.
4. We are a family. We are a community. We are a fellowship of men and women who are free to help one another.
5. We are a family. We are a community. We are a fellowship of men and women who are free to help one another.
