What's New from KB

February 2023

A Note from Kristen...

WHEW! I don't know about you, but between Super Bowl and Valentine's Day it has been a busy time! February is half over. Six weeks in, I wonder how often you revisit your goals from the beginning of the year? Mine are posted in a place where I see them often because I am the Queen of fizzling out, especially if we are talking about exercise- so far so good.

Book Recommendation - The Change Agent

This is a story I will not soon forget. I was first introduced to Damon West when he sent a video to a group of high school seniors I work with. He grew up in East Texas, played college football and got injured. He became a drug addict and was running a crime ring in Dallas and ended up with a life sentence in prison. The way he turned his life around and is now inspiring others to "be the coffee bean" is inspiring.
