

Long Bio

Terri Lytle-Holcomb is an ordained Interspiritual Minister, Transformational Speaker, and the visionary behind Spiritual Endeavor, LLC. Ordained in June 2025, Terri brings decades of life experience and professional wisdom to her work at the intersections of psychology, spirituality, social justice, and healing. Her journey from childhood and religious trauma to a life of purpose and compassion fuels her deep commitment to guiding others through grief, spiritual growth, and transformation.

Terri is known for creating inclusive spaces where people of all backgrounds—religious, spiritual, non-religious, LGBTQ+, and beyond—feel seen, heard, and empowered. She offers workshops, keynotes, and one-on-one support that integrate interfaith wisdom, nature-based practices, and a grounded, heart-led approach. Her work also includes animal Reiki healing and creating sacred rituals that welcome and honor rescue animals.

Whether speaking on stages, leading grief workshops, or walking alongside individuals on their healing path, Terri weaves authenticity, humor, and hope into everything she does. She is passionate about building bridges of understanding and inspiring brave action rooted in compassion and justice.

Learn more at SpiritualEndeavor.com or connect via LinkedIn and About.me.