Hey Burke. We had discussed a studio meeting every Thursday at 1:45 to cover studio related things and to catch up with goals/drafts/etc. We didn't discuss a weekly partner meeting. But we can set a time weekly that works for everyone. I know you and Jerilyn have been chatting regularly. Let me get back to you about a weekly time that would work. Thanks

Hey Bradley, I thought on the car ride home we planned to have a conference call with all the partners? I think my mom is making me crazy. We need to have a partner get together(call) once a week, cause Julie and I feel completely out of the loop.
