Dear Partners,

I have put my heart and soul into this studio. I have spent money staying at B&B's and I have slept in my car when I was too exhausted to drive home only to drive back in the morning. I don't think I have it in me to care that much anymore. I still have a passion for ballroom dancing, and hope that no matter where I make my home, I will be welcomed as a student in Planet Ballroom. I believe its the instructors that make the studio successful. [Employee] is a "wild card" to me. As much time as I spent at the Asheville studio, I still don't know [him/her] or what [his/her] passion is. With that said, I can't base life changing decisions on [his/her] possible success or failure at Planet Ballroom. At this time Burke and I would like to put our share up for sale. We will discuss the details at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Julie and Burke
