For some people, the choice of the first dance song is obvious before the couple even gets engaged. If you were lucky enough to share a romantic moment to a love song, you and your future spouse will have the sentimental attachment to the tune that makes for a perfect first dance. Others are satisfied staying with the tried and true classics – such as the wonderful “At Last” by Etta James.

However, there are plenty of sweethearts who are on the hunt for the perfect song to describe their love when after months of searching, they hear something new. Finally, a melody that describes how they feel! Modern hits such as “All of Me” by John Legend or “Thinking Out Loud” by Ed Sheeran exploded in popularity at weddings these past few years, but now some brides or grooms may feel those tracks are overplayed. So what’s next?

We’ve compiled a list of wedding songs to help you pick music for every key moment of your wedding, without digging through a million posts and a zillion comments to find the best stuff. We have all the songs on file and can compile a soundtrack to your perfect day!
