- New Business
  - o Club Picnic & Fly In – Thanks to everyone who volunteered and helped with the event.
  - o Wreaths Across America – We received a thank you letter from the organization, which was read to membership
  - o New member – Welcome Paul Bell, Paul comes to us from Wisconsin.
  - o Shed Project: We're looking into a 12 x 12 shed design that will be used solely for the mowers and maintenance equipment. Planning to meet with the county soon to have them put down a concrete slab for the shed.
  - o Club Swap Meet: Our club is hosting a swap meet at our field on Saturday, December 14, 9:00 am – 2:00 pm. You can bring your own table or sell out of your vehicle. Food will be sold at this event. The event will be free for everyone, buyers and sellers.
    - Brandon Orlando volunteered to direct traffic at the beginning of the swap meet.
    - Food: Ken Gordon, Dave Henderson, Alan Spaulding volunteered to cook and collect for the food that is sold.
    - If you are selling, set up is South of the porta pot. If you are not selling, please park in the lower lot to ease congestion and allow plenty of room for the sellers.
  - o Special Election: Effective immediately, Brandon Orlando will become our club Vice President for the remainder of the term, until 12/31/25. Congratulations Brandon.
  - o Starter Stands: Jerry Columbus along with Howard Gendron will oversee the construction of our new starter stands. The club voted and approved an expenditure up to $3,000.
  - o Adjourned: 9:22 am
