Creating options

Robert Nelson Funerals helps grieving families farewell a loved one in a way that best honours their life. We provide burial and cremation services that are meaningful, appropriate and affordable to the unique needs of each individual.

Preparing a funeral is likened to arranging an event as monumental as a wedding, but often with a few day's notice and with the added challenge of grief. When partnering with Robert Nelson Funerals, all of the details will be professionally looked after from the administrative paper work to burial or cremation duties and ceremony management.

Cremation options from $2,300

Burial options from $3,900

The most affordable funeral options are generally cremation. Cost will vary depending on where the funeral is and what additional services and funeral requisites you may prefer.

In order to make it easier for you to understand funeral costs we have created a range of fully inclusive packaged funeral options. Options can range from a simple unattended cremation or burial to full traditional style services.

We keep our cost low by eliminating some of the unnecessary items you may not want or need for your funeral yet include all of the necessary items and most common services people choose.

Customising your service is important to meet your wants and needs, so upgrading or adding additional services is made easy for you.

For full details of our cremation and burial options please refer to our web site www.robertnelsonfunerals.com.au or ph (03) 9532 2111 for our cremation or burial option brochures.
