

John Burnett LEADERSHIP AWARD

Plymouth County 4-H Youth Development Programs

The John Burnett Leadership Award is given to a 4-H member who is demonstrating outstanding leadership abilities, excellence in character, and well-balanced personal development. Past winners are not eligible. Nominees must be at least 16 years of age by January 1st of the current year. Any 4-H leader or 4-H member may make nominations. The nominations are to be made in writing and submitted to the Plymouth County 4-H Extension office by December 1.

To nominate a member, complete the information requested below and then summarize, in 250 words or less, the member's overall leadership, character and personal development. The 4-H Awards Committee will make final selections. In the case of a close decision, preference may be given to the older members. The award will be presented at the Plymouth County 4-H Awards Night.
