*Amurath Samurái (1985 - 2007)

by Hallie Goetz*

This issue of Shagya News is dedicated to the imported purebred Shagya-Arabian stallion *Amurath Samurái (Navarra x Amurath Sadika) (Photo above) who recently passed away at 22 years of age. *Amurath Samurái was an impressive beautiful stallion who NASS discovered during the 1997 NASS Inspection Tour, when upon encouragement by Martina Bastian, the inspection team traveled to Moes River, the Stelli's family dairy farm in Compton, Quebec, and as a full moon rose, inspected him and a small group of purebred Shagya-Arabian mares.

Bruno Furrer (ISG Judge and member of the 1997 NASS inspection team) eloquently expressed this encounter with *Amurath Samurái, stating: "And, almost a miracle, there he was, 'Amurath Samurái'...A mighty Shagya Arab stallion 15.3 hands tall, with 188 girth and 20 cm cannon bone, with a lovely head, strong and shapely barrel and correct legs...". "Samurái" or "Sam" (who at that time was 12 years old) made quite an impact on the judges, receiving 9's for type, head, and trot, which let to the high average score of 8.25 points.

However, *Amurath Samurái's story began long before the 1997 NASS Inspection Tour. Born in 1985, *Amurath Samurái was bred by Johanna Wrobbel and was licensed in Germany and Switzerland before his importation to Canada thirteen years ago. In fact, it was Peter Stelli's grandfather who first noticed Samurái. He had had traveled upon the advice of his son, Urs Stelli (Peter's father) to see *Kornelia (Koheilan I x Shagieh), bred by NASS member Ulla Nyeguard, who was then for sale at Johanna Wrobbel's farm in southern Germany. The Stelli family purchased *Kornelia and another mare, Mamoura (Amor x O'Bajan I-17), and in 1989 when they were looking for a stallion, remembering Samurái from their initial visit, they chose him. Readers may recognize O'Bajan I-17 from the pedigree of the NASS approved European stallions Bahadur and Basyt.

Four years later *Amurath Samurái, *Kornelia and *Korina (Navarra x *Kornelia) were chosen to join the Stelli Family in Canada. The trip to Canada was an adventure in itself: The Stellis drove the three of them to the airport, got them checked in, and they were placed in some kind of three stall box, all of which was very frightening! Then, handled like a piece of freight, they traveled to Canada in the belly of the airplane. Their neighbor who had agreed to accompany the horses on the flight had never flown before himself and all were on the LAST flight of the Air Canada plane, noting the air-line was abolished two weeks later. Peter still remembers the plane loading door fluttering in the wind and being fixed with some temporary strap. It was not just the horses that were a bit nervous about the trip! Once the horses passed quarantine Samurai spent over 13 years of calm and easy farm living with the Stelli Family.

Ulla Nyegard acquired Samurai's grand-dam, Nedda (Jussuf VII x 288 O'Bajan X) for her stud Barthahus, in Denmark. Nedda had been owned by a young horse-loving farmer in "Kolchos," one of the Communist "collective" farms where everything belonged to the state. In Barthahus, Nedda had no surviving offspring. However, in Germany she had two outstanding sons: Navarra by Saphiro by Czardas (Gazal VII x Czarda) and Nasrallah by Bartok (Gazal VII x Babolna). Navarra's dam, Nedda, is famous, but so was her mother 288 O'Bajan X, who Ulla saw when she first visited Hungary: "An outstanding mare, not very big, typical O'Bajan, not only pretty but very tough." She was sold from Bábolna to a cooperative farm where she was used for farming. Saphiro's sire, Czardas, was a Gazal VII son, bought and much used for the warmblood breed in the "Landgestüt" Celle, a famous stud. He was a typical Siglavy Bagdady and although not very big, had extraordinary gaits and wonderful character. Saphiro's dame Szikra was one of the mares v. Bartha helped Ulla find. She was a correct Shagya of the old-fashioned type.

Ulla described Samurai's dam, Amurath Sadika (Gharib x Panama VII), as "an elegant, brown mare of Yugoslavian bloodlines." She further describes Sadika "as being of the Radautz-type, bred in the old Yugoslavia in one of the "classic" state studs." Her dam, Panama VII, can also be found in the pedigree of the approved German chestnut stallion and successful distance horse, Amurath D-11, whose sire Aziz is her son from the stallion 116 Alkoran.

Gharib, Sadika's sire, was a black purebred Arabian stallion imported to Marbach Stud in Germany from the EAO in Egypt. Betty Finke, describing Gharib in the May 1987 issue of "Arabian Horse World," stated Gharib was "a horse with long lines and plenty of riding quality, as well as superb action and a great talent for jumping...(making him) popular with warmblood breeders as well."

Sadika produced excellent offspring, especially with Navarra, who was Ulla's favorite at Johanna's stud. She called him "one of my absolute favorites: a massive, broad, deep stallion, not like the modern-taste, high-legged horses with a lot of air under the belly." Sadika is also the dam of the bay purebred Shagya-Arabian stallion Amurath Koheilan by Koheilan II and of the proven broodmare and full-sister to Samurai, Amurath Saskia. Amurath Saskia is the mother of the two licensed stallions and full brothers, Kartango-Kahn and Kublai Khan by Kamour (Amor x Kolina).

Navarra, Samurai's sire, is also the sire of Stelli's imported mare *Korina from *Kornelia (Koheilan I x Shagieh) and of the NASS approved German stallion, Neddor from Nora I by Nasrallah. Navarra is the grandsire of Anke Brander's imported purebred Shagya-Arabian mare *Dahri whose sire, D'Artagnan, was also bred by Johanna Wrobbel. And, Nasrallah is the sire of the imported stallion *Dante LCR from Daphne.

Before his importation to Canada, Samurai sired a number of foals, including two colts, Sultan from Mamoura and Sandokan from *Kornelia and two fillies, Samanta from Mamoura and Samantha from *Kornelia. In North America Samurai sired many more foals, including the three approved stallions: Starwalker and Max from *Kornelia and Rocky from *Korina (now gelded), a number of mares, including Samantha from *Kornelia, Tamara and Natasha from *Korinna, Jewel from *Suroor, and Serena from Shamballah, and geldings such as Moritz from *Korina. Sam was also used on mares of other breeds, producing many Part Shagyas, including the Anglo-Shagya mare Samurai's Sweet Luna. On the NASS 2006 Inspection Tour six of Samurai's grandchildren were approved for breeding.

"Sausi Brausi" (the nick name given to Sam due to his high energy, which was never ill-tempered) will be surely missed, but his legacy most definitely lives on in North America's Shagyas.

Johanna Wrobbel

By Adele Furby

*Amurath Samurai's breeder, Johanna Wrobbel, made a number of significant contributions to the Shagya world. I first met her in 1986 while traveling with Ulla Nyegaard on our month-long tour of central Europe. At that time she lived in a small town in Bavaria in Southern Germany. She had acquired the wonderful stallion Navarra, and also had several mares with interesting pedigrees, including the dam of *Amurath Samurai, Amurath Sadika. This mare was of special interest because she carried the precious "Amurath" blood, which at that time was not so easily found in Shagya pedigrees.

Ulla, Bob Shuping, Anna Aaby and myself arrived at Johanna's apartment one evening and we all "camped out" on various couches, etc.! Unfortunately, my camera had gone on the fritz the day previously, so I was unable to get photos during that visit. Johanna contributed much not only as a breeder, but also as the organizer of a Shagya show in Bavaria for a number of years. For many years it was called the "Schloss/Pahl" show, as it was held on the grounds of a "schloss" (castle) in Pahl.

In 1992 I was invited to judge at the show Johanna organized that year. It was no longer held at the "schloss", unfortunately, but in the same area, Beuern. The show ran for 2 days and had 126 Shagya-bred horses competing and 3 Shagya judges (myself, Támas Rombauer, and Hugo Nagel) judging. And this was all organized by Johanna! I had a few free days after the show before continuing on my travel and Charlie and I were able to spend a good deal of time at Johanna's stables, which she called "Shagya-Gestut Obeya".

At that time she was standing Navarra, Amurath Koheilan (Koheilan II x Amurath Sadika), Neddor (Navarra x Nora I by Nasrallah) and the Gazal VII son Herold from Hera, whom she and Gaby Conrady had acquired in partnership. Herold had lived in relative obscurity and hadn't been used much until acquired by Johanna and Gaby. He was in his 20's by that time -- a fine old stallion who eventually sired the NASS-approved Bahadur from the mare Bajgala (Ibn Galal OX x O'Bajan I-17). Johanna kept her considerable herd at a leased farm and was busy getting mares in foal while we were visiting.

Navarra was impressive! A very gentle stallion who was in excellent condition. Johanna said he had been an especially good jumper, but his jumping career ended when he broke a bone in one foot. Johanna was a fountain of knowledge about the pedigrees and performance qualities of Shagyas.

I am grateful to her as a person who made some excellent breeding choices which contributed to the genetics of the breed, and who also worked to bring Shagya people together to exhibit and to promote this wonderful breed.

News Brief: An American Shows at Bábolna

The following "News Brief" is from Theodore Chriss who may be the first U.S.A. resident to show their Purebred Shagya-Arabian at a Championship Show at Bábolna Stud Farm, Hungary.

Mersuch Merengő (3928 Mersuch XXIII-8 x 1603 Mersuch XX-2), my beautiful six year old mare, placed fifth in Bábolna's Championship Horse Show in July of 2007. The third and fourth place scores were identical to Merengő's, so she actually obtained the fourth highest score at our first show! She has the most beautiful head of all of the entries as you can see. That's one of the judges Walter Hecker, (with the hat) an author and Shagya authority who's staring at her (below photo). He gave me thumbs up later that day after the judging. That gesture means a lot coming from a man of his stature in that part of the world. I was so proud.

I'm from New Orleans, Louisiana. I've been working overseas for 13 years in various countries as a contractor. I have loved horses all of my life, but being born and raised in the city, I never had a chance to pursue my lifelong dream of owning and breeding horses. While working in Hungary I decided that I would purchase my first horse. A friend of mine mentioned that his daughter was a member of a riding club that was selling horses because they were having financial troubles. The riding club located in Répáspuszta (Repas) was actually an old horse farm in a small rural village that had direct ties to Bábolna Stud Farm. I visited the farm and fell in love with these beautiful horses. I thought to myself that these were some of the most beautiful horses that I had ever seen. I was told that they were "Shagyas". There were at least fifty mares accompanied by their foals. There were also a few enormous draft type horses there at the farm. There were about five stallions boarded there that were loaned to Repas by Bábolna for breeding purposes. I researched the breed and became addicted to this rare steed. I hung around the stables every evening with the stable hands taking in as much information as I could. Some of the hands had worked there for many years. They would tell me stories of the joyous times when this prestigious place was at the height of its Shagya breeding program. This was ten years ago. Since that time I have purchased several mares from Repas and covered them by stallions from Bábolna. I breed for look (conformation) but most importantly for temperament. Why have a beautiful horse that you can't ride? One of my geldings is the half brother of Hungares the world champion long distance gelding bred in Hungary. My goal is to move at least two of my mares in foal to the U.S. and a stallion at first and still keep my ties with Bábolna. By the way, the breed's name has been changed here in Hungary only to "Bábolna Arabian".

NASS' Letter to the ISG:

Dear Mr. Al Samarraie and ISG BOD: It has been 2 1/2 months since I updated you regarding NASS. We recently had an election and I was waiting until we had final results before informing you of our progress. As I wrote you in late August, the NASS BoD had sent out a mailing to its members informing them of the decision to pursue the change in tax status through the NASS Corporation, and also to conduct elections for 2 Regional Directors. Following the election of 2 new Regional Directors (Kathy Rickkind for the Rocky Mountain Region and Jamie Buck for the Eastern Region), the NASS held its annual meeting in Mid September via conference call. Lori Baker was chosen as the new NASS President, and long-time Vice-President Gwyn Davis remains in that office. At that time the specific proposals regarding the desired tax status changes were explained to the membership. Our attorney, Mr. Huse, had advised us that in order to legally change our tax status it would be necessary to conduct a membership vote in which 2/3 of a quorum must approve this change, and this information was introduced at this meeting. In addition, normal business was conducted and there was a question-and-answer session as well. Following the annual meeting, NASS sent out (via US mail) ballots to our 72 voting members. (Our total membership is 95, 72 of which are voting members; in order to be a voting member, a person must be current on dues payment and own at least one NASS-registered horse.) Each member was sent a postcard ballot which they could return to a designated NASS member who would (anonymously) tally the votes. I am pleased to report that approximately 1/2 of our members participated in this election, and the final vote was 30 YES and 4 NO. So, the proposal passed overwhelmingly, and now the NASS attorney can proceed with the modifications to NASS's tax status. Meanwhile, all of the various NASS committees are proceeding forth with their work. The website is being continually updated, the Breeding Committee is working on the finalization of the NASS Studbook and of the Stallion Performance regulations, another issue of the Shagya News has been published, etc. Additionally, NASS is placing the attached ad (see below) for the Shagya breed in the US Equestrian magazine, which has a circulation of 80,000 in America. As you can see, we were able to use some wonderful photos of Shagyas in action provided by several ISG folks! I hope this letter gives you an accurate overview of recent NASS activities. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. Carin Weiss wrote me a few weeks ago and expressed concern about what was going on with NASS, based upon correspondence which she had received, for example. Please feel free to ask me about any specific complaints or allegations which you have received regarding NASS, and I will be happy to respond. We are excited to hear about the upcoming plans for the annual Delegates' Conference at Topolciansky and other ISG projects! Sincerely yours, Adele Furby, ISG Liaison

Terry Hey - IA

As usual life has been very busy! The summer simply evaporated - where did it go? Did anyone see which way it went???? Phil and I enjoyed a short, week long vacation in June, and the rest of the summer was filled with my regular job, and with training my two youngsters. Flow is going along like an old' broke horse; you'd think she'd been under saddle for years rather than just two, and is, as they say, one sweet ride. Emir is a year behind her in his riding horse career but our summer was fruitful and I'm happy to say that he has graduated his "baby phase" with flying colors and is an almost-solid training level horse. I bumped into a small training snafu this past summer when Emir seemed to suffer something of a mental block about his left lead. Rather than run the risk of making a mistake with him, I went looking for an upper level dressage trainer and instructor to help. I found Missy (Ellison) Fladland in Council Bluffs, Iowa, a mere two hours south of us, and discovered she is married to Kip Fladland, former student and assistant of Buck Brannaman. Kip spent many years living and working in Montana; he and Missy met at a Buck Brannaman clinic. Her combination of knowledge and experience included all of Mr. Brannaman's wonderful horsemanship skills plus her dressage skills and it turned out to be a perfect combination for Emir. Missy was incredibly kind and patient as she discovered holes in my groundwork (blush) but did say I'd done a very good job starting him under saddle (it was a relief to hear that; I'm not a professional colt-starter!) Turns out Emir was just a little confused about how to arrange his feet, and she had him cantering on his left lead in about two weeks without worrying Emir at all. He stayed with her for six weeks and I went down every Saturday both for a riding lesson and also training tutelage under Missy's direction and I learned a lot! She had never seen or ridden a Shagya before and liked Emir very much, commenting on his wonderful temperament. "He is sensitive and smart without being spooky" she said, and best of all - "I don't think he'll have any trouble reaching the FEI levels." It was thrilling to hear that, now if only we could say the same for his rider! All of our summer work paid off when we went to Des Moines, Iowa, to the Jester Park Equestrian Center to ride in a clinic with Jane Savoie, who was being hosted by our own Iowa Dressage and Combined Training Association. This was the opportunity of a lifetime for me, and a terrific chance to get a Shagya out into the eye of the local dressage public. Our lesson was scheduled for Sunday Oct. 7th. Emir made the 4 1/2 hour trip with ease, settled into his stall and was just a very good boy. I tacked him up shortly after arriving Friday night, to introduce him to the arena (which was huge, and beautiful) and look around. There were quite a few fancy warmbloods there but I really think we were able to hold our own quite well when it came to admiring glances. I was a little nervous when it was my turn to ride with Jane, but the lesson went really well. I did not have the chance to tell Ms. Savoie that he had only been under saddle for what was essentially the equivalent of six months, but it didn't matter a bit. We worked on connecting half halts, how to correctly supple our horses, how to apply this to transitions, etc. and Emir was just a champ through the whole thing. We also did canter work - on both leads - no problems! And with pretty good transitions for a greenie! I found Jane to be business-like but friendly and fair. She is an excellent coach whose instructions are clear and easy to follow. I even got a few "supers!" and "good job Ms Terry" out of her which to me was as good as a gold medal. The lesson gave me some wonderful tools for me to work on at home. Afterward I got lots of comments and questions about Emir, especially from a couple of clinic participants who were there with Arabians and part-Arabians. One person said she could not believe he had only been under saddle such a short time, which gave me a great opportunity to talk about their intelligence and lovely temperaments. Emir never spooked or freaked out - he looked around and wiggled a bit as any young horse would, but otherwise very focused on our work together. "I suppose these horses cost the earth" one person said, but I was happy to say, "no, not really, less than a warmblood, Friesian or Andalusian!" I encouraged them to look at our website. It was a great culmination for all our hard work. After our six weeks with Missy, she went to California, one of only a few riders chosen to work with Monica Theodorescu for a month, and then she was off to Europe with her sponsor to look for an Olympic prospect. I'm trying to talk her into considering a Shagya or Shagya cross! Missy had not realized how many talented warmbloods have Shagya lines, and when I mentioned Rembrandt she was very impressed, saying she had always loved the way that horse was built. Missy has invited me to continue to work with her, so we plan to trailer down there once a month as weather and road conditions permit. I also finally found an indoor to ride in, only six miles from home, when a local property was sold and I have become friends with the new owner, Natascha, who incidentally has a lovely warmblood mare whose pedigree has Shagya lines. Natascha didn't know that either so I've been doing a lot of educating lately. Happy riding everyone, have a safe and productive winter: may your Shagya mares conceive and my all your training and lessons go well.

Witsend Farm - NM

Kathy Rickkind

This summer was most exciting -started off with a trip to Bulgaria in May as a NASS delegate to the ISG meeting, then judging Shagyas at the European championships in July in Babolna - did not leave too much time for horse showing myself but Emilagra (Shandor x Echo Doll) and I made it to two more shows this year - did not get a qualifying score for USDF regional championships but our scores are slowly improving so I am hopeful for next year. Meanwhile Shagya's Sprite (Shandor x Shagya II-2) has qualified for the USEA Region X eventing championships at the Beginner Novice level so she is back to her trainer for a month of practice and then off we go in mid November - I qualify as the groom.

In December, I am going to attend the USEA annual meeting in Colorado Springs and I will take the Shagya brochures and sales list with me to pass out to all those poor unfortunate non-Shagya owners! Meanwhile as the newly elected NASS Rocky Mountain Regional Director, I have had the opportunity to connect with many members in my region and hope to meet a lot of them in person in our horse show adventures next year—have already had some great email conversations! So we have had our last Arabian Nationals in Albuquerque (bad), the Juan Tomas Hunt is beginning its hunt calendar for the season (good!), and all the horses are getting furry - the season of frozen manure will soon be upon us! Happy holidays everyone.

Hope Phelon - UT

Shannon (5yo gelding by *Shandor) and I ended on a good note with our first season of USDF dressage showing. For a while there this summer I was wondering if I had the mental/emotional stamina to say nothing of the financial strength to hack it. Yes it's just horse shows which should be fun but some folks take this dressage stuff mighty seriously. (Bismarck was just awful, but Longmont CO was better and by Huron we did very well) Shannon's high score was a 68 on Training 2. Although we missed Vintage Cup or All Breeds by a couple scores I think we did A OK for a young home bred horse and an old greenie. Shannon seemed to be a big hit with young children, Cavalry Judges and true horse lovers that liked his temperament as well as his movement. Last weekend we went for a nice trail ride in the Black Hills in beautiful weather and fall leaves. Life is good when you have a Shagya for a best friend. Happy Trails!

Elaine Kerrigan

KB Omega Fahim ++/ (ox) and Sophie AF (Shandor x Samantha) produced a superb bay filly this year. I plan to take her to the shows next season with her sire and siblings. Being half Arabian, though also a purebred Shagya, she will be able to compete in Arabian shows. Hopefully, she will be a great example of the breed. Sophie AF is again in foal to KB Omega Fahim ++/ for '08, via frozen semen. This is the second successful pregnancy with the frozen semen, the first being Adele Furby's, *Nicolette. KB Salim Fahim (ox) is in foal to Shagya Royal AF (Shandor x Rachelle) for 2008. KB Omega Fahim++/ had a great show year, after spending the winter and early spring collecting and making frozen semen. Highlights were AHA Region 3 Champion Sport Horse In Hand, AHA Region 3 Champion Third Level Dressage and AHA Region 3 Champion Fourth Level Dressage. He also scored nearly a 72% and a 74% at Fourth Level Dressage in an open show.

Adele's Shagyas - MT

Adele@balckfoot.net

Winter here in Moiese has recently settled in--we have about a foot of snow on the ground, which is rather unusual for us. We are wintering 37 horses this year--30 Purebred Shagyas, 5 Part-Shagyas, 1 Part-Shagya-Arabian, and 1 Warm-blood! The four 2007 foals are doing well and we are expecting 5 foals in '08: In foal to Shagya Royal AF are Samantha (*Amurath Samurai x *Kornelia), and MJL Shaleez (*Shandor x Kurundu Tara ox). In foal to Starwalker are MJL Shagala (*Shandor x MJL Jasmine), and Shagya's Sisu (*Shandor x *Shagya II-2). And *Nicolette (*Niobe's x O'Bajan I-10) is in foal to Elaine Kerrigan's black purebred Arabian stallion, KB OMegai Fahim! My riding/training plans for this fall were somewhat foiled by an accident in which I broke some bones in my upper back, so I had to turn over all training to Stephany Seay, whom many of you met at the Moiese Inspection site in '06. (My recovery is expected to be very slow, but my goal is to be active again by next spring.) This was Stephany's 3rd summer with me and consequently her training skills have developed to the point where she was able to take over the ground training on the young horses we were starting this fall--the approved stallion Shagya Raja AF (Shagya Scherzo x Rachelle AA), the high-scoring mare from the '06 Inspection Sheherazade AF (*Shandor x Sapphire), and the impressive young mare Shagya Inchantress AF (*Shandor x Oxana). Raja's talents clearly lie in the dressage area, although we hope to see how he likes jumping one of these days too! Our project with him this fall was to convince him that his duties in life include more than just paying attention to mares--fortunately he is very tractable and lovely to handle. Sheherazade ("Sherry") is so talented that just watching her lunging is inspirational. She has the elevated, cadenced and fluid trot of a natural dressage horse, and lovely balanced canter, but she likes to play a few games too to keep things interesting! Inchantress, on the other hand, is totally sincere and constantly tries her hardest, which is a good thing considering her large size, and her big gaits are breathtaking. For such a large animal she balances herself beautifully on the circle. By the time Stephany departed for her winter job in West Yellowstone, all the horses were lunging beautifully with surcingle and snaffle bit. Stephany and I have been attending Paul Belasik clinics in Bozeman for a few years now and our dream is to ride in his clinics--me on Sherry and Stephany on Inchantress. In a few years we'd like to be riding a couple of the stallions in his clinics as well! We also put Shagya Royal AF back in groundwork training this fall but unfortunately he sustained a minor tendon injury so we laid him off for the winter. Our other fall project was to video all of the sale horses. I have a big sale list at the moment, with 8 individuals on it, and have a master tape with all of the sale horses on it and can send interested folks either a video or a DVD. So if you haven't seen it, drop me a line and I'll get one in the mail to you. Summer farm work included putting up some new stallion fencing, because at the moment I have 9 stallions or stallion prospects here, and I plan on keeping the majority of them here to provide breeders with access to several bloodlines: Approved stallions: *Shandor, Shagya Royal AF and Shagya Raja. Young stallions: *Hadban USA (Harapnik x *Irahna), Onyx AF (Janos x MJL Shaleez), Shagya Skamp AF (Janos x Samantha), Nikolas Royale AF (Shagya Royal x *Niobe) and Nicolette's Revelation (Shagya Royal x *Nicolette). I only have one of these stallions on my sale list--so I'll need plenty of stallion fencing as each stallion has his own roomy pasture.

Other information of general interest to Shagya Admirers: such as articles on horse management, training, breeding, etc. can be included if space permits. The newsletter will be limited to approximately 12 pages so that its weight is 2 oz. or in order to minimize postage costs when possible.

All Shagya-Arabian and Arabian stallions advertised for breeding must be registered with and Approved for Shagya Breeding by NASS.

The Newsletter will include (but is not limited to) the following topics: Committee Reports, Clinics-Shows-Open Houses, Farm News (not to exceed 200 words in length), ISG News, HHA News, New Foals, New Horse Owners, New Members, Articles of Interest on horse management, breeding, etc. if space allows, *Classifieds: List of NASS registered horses for Sale, Calendar, and Half-page and Full page Advertising. *Sale horse information in the listing may include: name, sire & dam, measurements, age, color, markings, & level of training.
