NASS Annual Report to ISG
July 2011

In 2011 the North American Shagya-Arabian Society celebrates its 25th year as a Shagya-Arabian breeding society, as well as its 25th year as an associate member of ISG. In commemoration of our Silver Anniversary NASS created our new stationery upon which this Annual Report to ISG is written. Since its inception NASS has aligned itself closely with ISG and has always striven to cooperate with ISG and to comply with ISG regulations on an ongoing basis. NASS currently has 97 members and represents 19 active breeding stallions and 108 active breeding mares.

Our Registrar, Carol D. Neubauer, who was one of the original founding members of NASS, has continued to carry on her Registrar's duties with a record for accuracy and completeness which is unparalleled. Carol reports that new registrations last year have been slower than in the past, undoubtedly due mostly to the worldwide economic situation, which has reduced the number of foals being born each year. NASS compiled and printed a several copies of a Draft Studbook in 2006 and is currently investigating the possibilities for publishing a limited edition of a hard copy Studbook as well as a Studbook in CD form. Our biggest obstacle in this endeavor has been a lack of funding to complete this project.

Meanwhile, however, our Assistant Registrar Elaine Kerrigan has entered all 505 horses from the NASS Registry into the Swiss Database. Thus, much of the NASS Studbook information can now be viewed on line by all.

The NASS website is currently undergoing a redesign. Among other features will be a "blog" type format for ongoing updates and contributions from our members. We currently receive so many updates from our members that our tri-annual NASS NEWS has grown to over 50 pages per issue. Our plan is to shift much of our member updates over to the electronic blog format and to maintain a hard copy newsletter which will contain content of a more historical and research nature, as well as, of course, containing all the important information regarding NASS Inspections and NASS breeding horses.

NASS is beginning to plan for our 9th Inspection Tour, to take place in the fall of 2012. NASS had Inspection Tours in 1989, 1991, 1994, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, and 2009. Our invited judges have included the European ISG judges: Dr. Ekkehard Frielinghaus, Bruno Furrer, Anna Aaby, Claudio Conradty, Tamas Rombauer, Walter Huber, and Ahmed Al Samarraie. American ISG judges have been Adele Furby and Kathy Richkind. In 2010 we congratulated our newest NASS member American ISG certified judge, Hallie Goetz.

The NASS Performance Awards which recognizes NASS registered Shagya-Arabians and Shagya-bred horses in many disciplines continues to be an active program, with NASS registered horses currently participating in dressage, eventing, hunter, endurance, and breeding/conformation classes.

In 2008 NASS also instituted performance testing requirements for approved breeding stallions based upon the ISG RZBO model. These requirements apply to stallions approved for breeding beginning in 2009, and this spring *Hadban USA, following his approval on the 2009 Inspection Tour, became the first NASS registered stallion to complete his performance test.

In order to celebrate the outstanding achievements of horses with Shagya-Arabian blood, NASS has created the "Radautzer Award" for NASS registered horses competing in American Endurance Riders Council (AERC) rides. The inaugural award will be given in 2011, coinciding with NASS' twenty-fifth anniversary. Named after the horses from the famous Austrian military stud farm of Radautz (located in present day Romania) a horse with exceptional courage and stamina in Europe received the highest praise is described as "tough as a Radautzer".

NASS's primary publicity project this year was participation in a new coffee table book, "Great Horse Breeds of the World". NASS contributed four pages of content and photos about the Shagya-Arabian breed. Several individual breeders also contributed their own information to this book, which we hope to introduce to ISG members during the Delegates Conference. NASS also has once again offered a stallion service auction, offering discounts for breeding to a number of NASS approved breeding stallions as a fund raiser and publicity tool.

The NASS Board of Directors continues to meet for regularly scheduled meetings via conference call four times per year, with other meetings added as the need arises. These meetings are open to all NASS members. The NASS website contains a great deal of information; we encourage all Shagya lovers to visit our site often, and if any questions arise, feel free to e-mail us via our website.

Respectfully submitted,

Jamie Buck, NASS President

NASS Registrar Honored by New York Order of the Eastern Star

CAROL D. NEUBAUER

Every year the Order of the Eastern Star (Grand Chapter of New York) presents a "Shining Star" service award to a member in each district for service to the Order, her individual chapter, and community. At the Cortland-Madison Official Visit April 15, our 2011 Grand Matron, M.W. Janet R. Siano, in her introduction, referred to "a member in two chapters and two districts, Treasurer of her 'home chapter,' Musician for the other; she has done all sorts of hand-lettering work for Cortland-Madison district and Onondaga district, gift bags for residents of the Eastern Star Home in Oriskany, and has often 'filled in' as substitute officer when called on."

But when she mentioned Scottish shortbread, and "pianist for the Delphi Falls United Church," the other DeRuyter members at our table all grinned at me - they had kept it a surprise. I almost broke down in tears, but when the Grand Conductresses came to escort me to the head table, I had to remember to smile, stand tall and move out in step!

The Grand Matron mentioned that I'd been a member 45 years, served as the Matron of DeRuyter Chapter four times, and had held many other offices in both my chapters; in 2000, I received an appointment to serve as Grand Representative of Montana (Adele will remember that I visited her at the new farm in Moiese after I attended the Montana Grand Chapter session in Kalispell).

M.W. Janet pinned the blue ribbon award on my collar, then asked me if I would like to speak. I thanked everyone who had participated in the decision to have me receive this honor. The best part of it has been meeting and making friends with so many wonderful people over the years.

The Order of the Eastern Star, a fraternal, service, and social organization, is a ladies' companion order to the widely known Masonic Fraternity. It was originally established for the wives and female relatives of Master Masons in the mid-1800's and is the largest fraternal organization in the world open to both men and women. Carol's grandparents, Millard and Lydia Davenport, her parents Ivan and Lucile Davenport, and her three aunts, Edith, Jennie and Eloine, were members of DeRuyter Chapter #416. Carol joined in May 1966. When her daughter Sheridan was initiated into the order in 1981, she was the fourth generation of the family to have membership in Ruyter Chapter.

Editor's Note: Carol D. Neubauer has served loyally as the registrar for NASS since its inception 25 years ago. She has diligently researched lineages and entered new additions to the NASS herd so that we have the most accurate records in North America about Shagya-Arabians. Her meticulous record-keeping and beautiful hand-written registration certificates have been noted at ISG meetings; they are a credit to the NASS organization. Carol also contributes to NASS news as copy editor.

Follow Hope (*Oman/Faith's Fantasia ATA) and I are doing well. We are mostly doing dressage training and trail riding. We are going to ride in our first dressage show this Fall. It's been quite a feat for both of us to change from endurance to dressage but we are having fun and it is so good for both of us to ride with more focus and balance. She is pretty game with anything I try to teach her!

PHIL AND TERRY HEY | SIOUX CITY, IA

Well, we came home from the Iowa Dressage Classic the third weekend in June with our last qualifying score for the USDF Region 4 Championships - I'm so excited!!! It was one of my goals to qualify so we can check that one off. We won Training 2 both days with scores between 68-70%. In Training 3, we picked up a couple of fourth places with scores around 64% and 65% (in one test, blame pilot error, the heat got to me and I went off course, aarrhhhh)

After this show, Phil and I went on our vacation. We visited beautiful Wisconsin and had fun playing in water parks, riding steam engines and taking in art fairs. We arrived home to a veritable furnace: July had turned up the heat. Most of the month, it was too hot to do anything but stay inside where there is air conditioning, and head for the swimming pool whenever possible, which we did.

Florence, aka "Flow" (Baron AF/Flora AA by H. Bravo) being bay, seems to feel the heat more than the two greys, whose light coats do a good job reflecting back a lot of the sun's rays. Poor Flow can become soaked with sweat very quickly during our 99 degree weather and 100% humidity, so she enjoyed a cool shower every day, and spending the worst of the heat in a stall, in front of her fan. She loves that and stands there letting her forlock and mane blow around like a fashion model.

I managed to ride only about half a dozen times the whole month - usually by getting up at the crack of dawn to ride before the mercury rose too high. I was almost thinking of scratching the next show, which was held in Mason City, held the first weekend of Aug. But the weather broke just a few days before, so away we went. We got lucky with low humidity, about 10 degrees cooler (in the low 80s) and much less humidity.

Terry and Kai have a great performance in Mason City.

At this show, Shagya Emir AF, aka "Kai" (Shagya Scherzo AF/Echo Daal by H. Bravo) was amazing on Saturday, and we wound up Training Level Champion! It was our very first tricolor ribbon - Kai seemed very proud to have it hanging on his stall door. On Sunday, he seemed to get a little kink again in his neck and wasn't his best self. I nursed him through the tests, and he still won Training 2, was fourth in Training 3 again. We called Dr. Knutson, his chiropractor, when I got home on Sunday, and she put him right on Monday. He's been fine since, and schooling really well.

We are hoping to make our First Level debut at Regionals - wish us luck! The competition will be tough, but Missy, my coach and I are working on doing our best and having fun.

In between all this, I found some wonderful quality grass hay, an organic timothy/orchard grass/brome mix, and put up 150 bales. We are now awaiting an order of 120 bales of alfalfa. Who needs a gym membership when you have hay to stack?

KATHY RICHKIND | ASDFLKJASDF;LKJ

WS Emilagra, aka "Milagra" (*Shandor/Echo Daal) finally resumed her show career after recovering from her second colic surgery in 2009 – it took her a while to get back into shape (me too!) but we did manage to get our qualifying scores for USDF Regionals at first level, and plan to go to Scottsdale to show there in November. Hoping for second level next year!

WS Elodie (Feuertanzer/WS Emilagra), my young Shagya Trakehener mare, also made her debut at first level this spring. Unfortunately, she traveled to the show with a young stallion and came into raging heat immediately – quite a show she put on, but not in a good way! Oh, well...

Elodie is now in foal to a black Westphalian stallion Rubinus, who has three lines to Shagyas in his pedigree, so the foal will have five lines in total to Shagya ancestors. Fingers crossed all will go well – she conceived on Friday the 13th, in typical contrary Elodie fashion. Planning on resuming her dressage show career in 2012 after I buy stock in Regumate – or she may pursue her alternate career as a grand prix jumper then...

Happy riding !

Milagra and Kathy - back in action!

USDF ALL BREED AWARDS

Reminder to Dressage Enthusiasts - NASS sponsors awards for Shagyas in the USDF All Breed Award program. The horse must be registered with NASS and the owner a NASS member. The horse has to be nominated for the program with USDF, then accumulate 8 scores at one level from four different judges and four different shows. Ranking is based on the median score, which has to be at least 60% to qualify for the awards.

This year NASS has three qualified horses to date :

Shagya Emir AF (Shagya Scherzo AF x EchoDoll), owned by Terry Hey

WS Emilagra (Shandor* x EchoDaal), owned by Kathy Richkind

Banner Ct (Oman x Bravita), owned by Ann Whittaker and Missy Hicks Myrick.

This is a great showing for a breed with such limited numbers in the USA!

For more information, contact Kathy Richkind (see Rocky Mountain regional director)

April of 2011 welcomed two black Shagya-Arabian colts from Samantha (*Amurath Samurai/ *Kornelia), and *Thassia (Bahadur x Thirza). Both colts are sired by KB Omega Fahim++++// (ox). I plan to retain Samantha's colt, as *Thassia's colt has a sale pending. Happily, both mares are again in foal for 2012.

Our show season was short and sweet. The biggest accomplishment was that KB Omega Fahim++++// completed the highest achievement award offered from Arabian Horse Association. This one adds another + mark and is called "Legion of Masters". He also earned his highest Grand Prix score (so far) of 67.447%.

I had the opportunity to show off two of my Shagya-bred horses at the Pacific Coast Arabian Sport Horse Classic. They generously offer classes for Shagya bred horses. Unfortunately, I was the only one to bring a Shagya bred horse, but that does give us a lot of blue ribbons.

Shagya's Serena AF (*Shandor/Shagya II-2) was shown in dressage and under saddle. She did a good job and impressed people with her power and presence.

KB Sequoia Fahim (Shagya Royal AF/KB Salim Fahim (ox)), was shown in-hand. Since she is also half Arabian, she is able to be shown in the Half-Arabian classes. She proudly won the half-Arabian mare class, though she is only three years old. She also was awarded Top Five in the AHA Region III Championship Show in the half-Arabian mare division.

Sisu's Starlet AF ("Starlet"), four-year old Shagya filly owned by Stephany J. Seay is under saddle! This is the first time I have ever taken this step with a horse, and Starlet has been such a fun partner to learn with. I've done everything but commit my right leg into the saddle, but Starlet seems more ready than I am and is waiting patiently for me. It's hard to put words to this experience. I love you, Starlet!!! Thank you Adele Furby!

ISG Annual Meeting Report

ADELE FURBY

The ISG Delegate Conference for 2011 was held in Radautz, Romania. Radautz is the location of one of the original Austro-Hungarian Stud Farms which bred Shagya Arabians. This location had been the traditional gathering place for assembling horses that were routinely purchased by the Austrian military, and the horses in the area were largely of Turkish blood due to the long Turkish occupation of the Balkans.

Bruno Furrer and Adele Furby at the ISG Conference 2011

Our visit to the stud farm was very interesting, since the bloodlines represented currently at the Radautz Stud Farm trace back to these early mare lines from Bukovina and surrounding areas. The Shagya-Arabian Studbook of Romania was recently accepted by ISG. The hospitality shown by the Romanians was superb. There were approximately 75 attendees at the meeting.

The NASS delegates attending were Adele Furby and Susan Keil. NASS had prepared a "Position Paper" as well as an annual report of NASS activities for the past year in both English and German and all attendees received a copy of the NASS reports as they entered the meeting hall. ISG President Ahmed Al Samarraie congratulated NASS on our 25 years of membership in ISG.

Susan Keil read the NASS Position Paper in which the NASS's opinion regarding having more than one Shagya-Arabian Society per country aloud to the Delegates. This paper was prepared by the NASS Board of Directors.

Next, a proposal from Siegfried Frei, Tamas Rombauer, and Bruno Furrer was presented. This proposal is to establish a working group that will define tasks for some ISG committees. The tasks will include ensuring that all horses newly registered in an ISG-member society studbook meet the RZBO (General Framework) Regulations, which were accepted by all ISG member societies in 2007, training of judges, recruitment of young judges, sponsorship or better recruitment of supporting members, and advertising and promotion (particularly through the internet). Adele Furby was named onto this working group.

This was followed by a proposal from the Austrian Society that the so-called "Original Studbook" of the Shagya Arabians will be kept officially by the ISG for purposes of conforming to the EU regulations. Any individual Shagya-Arabian Society which applies to hold its own "Original Studbook" separate from ISG will not be allowed membership in ISG.

Next, Bruno Furrer gave a report regarding the studbooks of the "ASAV" and the "PShR". The main points were able to glean from the translation was that both studbooks were found to be inadequate. Each society will have the opportunity to correct their books by December 31, 2011. If the deficiencies haven't been corrected by that time the applications will be rejected.

The French Shagya Society has invited the ISG to have its 2012 Delegate Conference in France in June of 2012.

Shagya Database Update

ELAINE KERRIGAN

The online Shagya database is a website that was developed by Alfred Zingg of Switzerland. <http://www.shagya-databahse.ch/>

At this time, the database includes:

- SAVS , Shagya-Society of Switzerland - Studbook data maintained by Lea Ernst,
- AFCAS , French Shagya. Studbook data maintained by Gaby von Felten,
- NASS , North American Shagya-Arabian Society. Studbook data maintained by Elaine Kerrigan.

The database allows anyone to freely look for a Shagya and obtain its pedigree along with other information such as year of birth, place of birth, breeder, color, sire and dam lines, measurements, registries, breeding approval, list of descendants, to name a few.

One can look up a horse with its name or search for a name in various lists provided. These named horses are also listed in various categories. The lists includes stallions and geldings, mares, birth places, breeders and registers.

At this time, NASS has 505 horses entered into this database. They include Shagya-Arabians, part Shagya-Arabians and part Shagyas. Entering all of the NASS registered horses was my winter project and was very time consuming, but equally rewarding.

Take some time and cruise the website. I hope you find it as interesting and useful as I do.
