Pneumatology (Holy Spirit)	While Jesus paid the sin debt for mankind, the works of the Holy Spirit are produced by baptism of the Holy Spirit (indwelling &amp; sealed). These works of the Spirit are: 1. forgiveness 2. transferring Christ's righteousness to the sinner (imputation) 3. sanctification (the loosening of the world's grip on the sinner) 4. consecration (recognizing one's gifts and their dedication to Christ) 5. transformation (justification) 6. repentance (change of one's worldview and life's direction) 7. crucifixion of the sin nature 8. fruit production 9. teaching 10. understanding (enlightening) 11. the guidance into all truth. Again, these virtues CANNOT be applied to the sinner until baptism by the Holy Spirit occurs. Acts 19:2--He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.	The heresy of man's free-will in the redemptive process, eliminates the need for the Holy Spirit. The tenets of James Arminius' denies the Holy Spirit &amp; his ministry.	Arminian tenets: 1. PREVENIENT GRACE--(this is NOT God's grace, but simply willful determination brought to the surface through a crisis) 2. CONDITIONAL ELECTION--Man must exercise his free-will to be saved, this contradicts God's definition of grace. 3. UNLIMITED ATONEMENT--The "whosoever will" claimed by the Arminian is always conditioned by an action of the sinner before God. 4. RESISTIBLE GRACE--Man is mightier than God. The god of Arminianism is a conflicted god sitting in heaven, wringing his hands in frustration wanting to save the individual, but unable because through 'free-will,' that person is not ready for god to save them. This is the feckless and anemic god of the Arminian. 5. ASSURANCE &amp; SECURITY--A redemptive paradigm of works cannot produce eternal security when redemption is initiated by men.
Christology (Person of Christ)	Christ's blood is unlimited in its capacity to forgive sin--past, present, &amp; future. The blood of bulls &amp; goats could never do that. The blood of animals was limited and not perfect, whereas Christ's blood was perfect. Christ satisfied the Father's requirement of a perfect sacrifice offered on behalf of sinful men.	The examination of any religion, denomination, or sect reveals the cult of personality. Add to that the doctrines &amp; commandments of men that contradict scripture, and it should be apparent to anyone that these teachings and clerical leaders are at war with Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 1:11-17	In Rome they teach Mary (Semiramis) is co-equal with Christ, while church tradition &amp; magisterium are on equal footing with the Bible. Protestantism, spawned from Rome, teaches the doctrines &amp; commandments of men that Christ condemned. Rejecting inerrancy &amp; inspiration is tantamount to rejecting Christ.

Election/ Predestination	The church, also known as the elect, are elect because of Christ choosing his own from the foundations of the world.	Catholic Arminianism teaches the doctrine of man's 'free-will'	The Catholic doctrine of free-will has infected all denominations. Election says God saves & justifies. Man's inherent sinfulness prevents man's deliverance from condemnation.
Inspiration	Inspiration means God-breathed. God moved men to pen his words. How powerful is your god?	Most church statements of faith say this, 'We believe the scriptures in the original autographs.' There are no originals; however, they have been preserved by God's Spirit-filled people. The church is indirectly telling you they believe in NOTHING!	The Catholic 'Bible' is not inspired. Its polluted manuscripts come from Alexandria, Egypt. Jerome wrote the Catholic 'Bible;' however, it's not inspired. The Cambridge edition of the K.J.V. (1901) is the best translation in any language.
Inerrancy	In John 15:5 Jesus said without him we can do nothing. . . . Without his forgiveness, his Spirit, and his word, we can do nothing.	Catholic tradition & magisterium (how the Vatican 'interprets' Jerome's Bible) are on equal footing with the Catholic 'Bible.' The Catholic Church made sure of this at the Counsel of Trent.	Since the 'church' does not believe in God's word being preserved for us without error, they have NO foundation
National Israel	Not all churches teach this; however, many ascribing to the pre-tribulation view believe the 'church' is absent from Revelation chapters 4-22.	The Catholic doctrine of Supercessionism says God has replaced Christian Jews with the 'church.'	The Catholic leadership endorsed the German Zentrum during WWII. This group brought Hitler to power.
The Elect	John 1:13 destroys all the ways men believe they can come to God: not by blood (born into a 'Christian' family); will of the flesh (good works or willful determination); will of man (sainthood, rabbi, pastor, any ecclesiastical decree or academic honor, degree)	Grace, mercy, and the Holy Spirit are absent in any and all discussions regarding redemption and justification by God. This is because of the heresy of 'free-will'	Works produce a dependent class of people easily manipulated and bewitched through sorcery. If I can convince you church attendance, involvement, and giving is equivalent to redemption, I've gotcha! If you ask someone whether they are saved or not, they usually answer by saying, 'I go to church.'

Redemption	A supernatural, invisible, one time occurrence accomplished by the Godhead, through a covenant involving all three persons of the trinity.	The label of a 'faithful Christian' is conferred upon those of good standing within the church, & within the Catholic faith, if miracle(s) have been performed, the person could be considered a candidate for sainthood.	Value and worthiness by the established church is not measured by the fruit of the Spirit but by loyalty, submission to church authority, and involvement in the church.
Creation	The Bible teaches that the Godhead created everything in 6 literal days.	You can choose between theistic evolution (God created everything, but left the rest up to chance & evolution) the Ruin & Reconstruction Theory (God made a mistake), or Intelligent Design ("intelligent cause," not the Creator, Jesus Christ). They all lead to the same hopeless dead-end.	A lack of faith in Jesus Christ, and a denial of the 6-day creation account offers only one alternative--evolution.
Collectivism-Socialism	Nimrod (Gen. 10:8-12; Gen. 11:1-9) is the founder and architect of collectivism, which by design, was RELIGIOUS.	As the lead insurrectionist against Jesus Christ, Nimrod's primary core values for promoting his collectivist ideals he learned as a hunter: 1. APPEAR LIKE YOUR ADVERSARY (dress & act like them)- decoy 2. SOUND LIKE YOUR ENEMY (Aeosophian Language, deflect suspicion away from inquisitive minds, censure opposition voices, replace the truth with a lie)- animal mimicry 3. MAKE YOURSELF INVISIBLE (hidden intentions, secret agendas & initiations)- camouflage . The visible, established church has adopted these same strategies to grow itself, instead of dependence on the Holy Spirit.	Having attended Protestant denominations for 31 years, while not as obvious as Rome, the Protestant, denominational-sectarian matrix (the cult of personality) employs nonetheless its own bag of 'Christian psychology' to bewitch its congregants and seduce them through the doctrines of devils (sorcery).

Money	Gold & silver coin was regulated by the Levite priestly class, whose devotion & livelihood depended completely on God, as well as the obedience of the people toward God.	The value of Babylonian 'funny money' was determined by unscrupulous money changers, bankers, and a central banking cartel, and was not subject to independent, external oversight & transparency.	Genuine money, not Luciferian decree, & history have proven the four characteristics of a legitimate medium of exchange: 1. intrinsic worth 2. relative scarcity 3. divisibility 4. durability
Indebtedness	In Leviticus 25 we encounter the jubile or year of financial release from indebtedness. In contrast to the jubile there was a more sinister element at work enslaving individuals & nations, namely the evils of Nimrods' central banking cartel, and that indebtedness was an accepted part of the human condition through the machinations of immoral men. ULTIMATE OBJECTIVE --slavery, control, & implementation of a global, religious collective.	Jesus Christ by keeping the law with its requirements, observances, holy days, offerings and sacrifices, made the saints perfect and justified before the Father. This was accomplished through Jesus' sacrificial payment of sin, the Holy Spirit's work of justification, imputation, transformation, and sanctification, as well as through the sovereign orchestration of the Ancient of Days in the affairs of men. For the elect this results in peace, rest, assurance and confidence of Christ's finished work on the cross. For the church, this means striving, conflict, vexation of spirit, and the belief that what Christ accomplished was not sufficient enough . . . Such is the conundrum of a religious paradigm rooted in works (religion).	If you want to remain in bondage by rejecting Jesus' freedom from condemnation, the Holy Spirit's imputation of Christ's righteousness, and Jesus' words as the believer's authority, Go ahead . . . But don't blame God. God has given men a moral conscience, his creation, his law from Sinai, national Israel, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, his completed-inerrant word, & the elect. You're without excuse! (Rom. 1:20)
Prophecy	With the completion of scripture after the death of John the apostle in 100 A.D., PREDICTIVE PROPHECY CEASED!	With the promotion of tongues (gibberish, confusion, glossolalia NOT human language) within the Charismatic and Pentecostal Movements, their non-dispensationalist teaching has seduced the naïve into believing the apostolic church with all its gifts, still exists today.	The biggest lie promoted by the unscriptural tribulation disciples is that the subject of Daniel 9:27 is Satan NOT Jesus Christ. This lie planted by Francisco Ribera, a Spanish, Catholic theologian deflected suspicion away from Rome as the Babylonian system energizing the Roman beast. This eschatological view spawned Catholic Futurism .

Dispensationalism	Much like the conservative creeds of the earlier saints, John Nelson Darby , as 'the father of pre-millennial, dispensationalism,' was simply echoing, teaching, writing and living what scripture had declared.	A dispensation is defined for us in Hebrews 1:1, 2--God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, 2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;. A dispensation, therefore reveals that God has spoken to men throughout history in different ways.	Non-dispensationalist teaching is taught by all churches, even though the apostolic church age was unique and will never be duplicated again. John's death (100 A.D.) marked the end of the apostolic church age.
Angels, Demons, &amp; UFO's	All angels are subject to their Creator, Jesus Christ. They are male in appearance. They can materialize and de-materialize based on the will of their Creator. They lack genitalia or the means of reproduction, therefore they never marry. They are immortal. The fallen angels are utilized by their Creator to deceive those who hold the truth in unrighteousness. They have emotion; however, their response to Earthly tragedy is different in that they are not human. They view earthly, temporal events through the prism of the eternal. Angel classes mentioned: 1. arch angels--Michael (Dan. 10:13), Gabriel (Dan. 9:21) 2. cherubim (Gen. 3:24) 3. seraphim (Isa. 6:2, 3) 4. teraphim (an angelic idol that was worshipped--Judges 17:5) 5. the angel of the LORD (II Sam. 24:16)	In Genesis 3, we see the serpent beguiling and lying to Eve. Wherever you see the elevation of mankind, Satan is always in the shadows OR openly influencing men, through sorcery. This sister league between Satan and men exchange the biblical worship and reverence of God with the worship & deification of men. This IS the heresy of man's free-will. (Gen. 6:5; Eccles. 7:20; Jer. 17:9; II Pet. 2:19-22)	The church refuses to address this issue as they are the key participants in this league with the atheists in confusion, deception, &amp; manipulation. This association with the powers of darkness is one of the engines driving the New Age Human Potential Movement.

Omnipotence	Only in God resides the trait of omnipotence or possessing all power because of his position as Creator	In addressing dualism and its application to good and evil, dualism says God and Satan are equal in power, directly opposing one another. This notion has infected the church, corrupting the role of God in the affairs of men. Proverbs 16:4 says, "The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil." God has a grander purpose when people encounter heartache, disappointment, and brokenness. This permissive will of God, a mystery to many people, has the ultimate objective of either purifying or hardening the hearts of men, through which God's perfect & determinate counsel become incrementally evident.	Why do bad things happen to 'good' people? (Job 1:12) Because God's permissive will exists along side of his perfect will. I, along with Job, have come to understand this deep & profound godly precept. In my case, it involved chastening by the LORD, in addition it became an opportunity to build his faith within me.
Omnipresence	God is everywhere. This is NOT suggesting God is part of his creation . . . He is separate from that which he made. If he were part of what he made, God would cease to be God. Pantheism, panentheism infer that God is part of his material universe, which of course is absurd.	Oxford Dictionary of English 3.2.50.0 Copyright © 2025 1 The attribution of a living soul to plants, inanimate objects, and natural phenomena. When Jesus created all plants & inanimate objects, they were created without a soul (Gen. 7:21, 22; Eccles. 3:21) This does not make them any less important; as Christ created them to be mutually interconnected.	If the sinner is not confronted with the reality of eternal punishment in the afterlife, then they will not see their need for deliverance. Even in hell God's justice, punishment & equity are evident to the damned and their tormented, moral conscience. Religion struggles with this fact. Hinduism through reincarnation, the pre-existence of the soul, & karma, rejects the truth as embodied in Jesus Christ, and the punishment of the wicked in an everlasting place called hell. There is NO turning back!

Omniscience	All knowing, omniscience is associated with the attribute of God's foreknowledge--the advanced knowledge of actions, events, & words before they transpire. The existence of God possessing foreknowledge does not prevent the Godhead from permitting evil men to carry out their plans, for in the end God's greater & grander plan will overcome evil.	Satan and his minions cannot divine (possess knowledge of events beforehand). They can; however, be privy to plans and communication as a result of ability to materialize or dematerialize at the will of their Creator, Jesus Christ. They can be shut out from intrusion by the saints in matters of national security through prayer & invoking Jesus' protection.	The acceptance & observance of the church of pagan beliefs such as Christ Mass (Christmas--birth of Tammuz [Nimrod reincarnated]), All Hollows Eve (Halloween), and Easter (from the Greek meaning pascha or passover--the KJV translators were correct) has severely impacted believers' views of God's omniscience and sin in the world.
Gifts of the Spirit	While the invisible, eternal gifts of the Spirit are invisible & eternal, they nonetheless are evident in the demonstration of the Spirit in the saints' life.	The works for Christ, more often than not devolve into dead, emotionless, exercises of orthodoxy. Such was Christ's rebuke of the Ephesian church in Revelation 3:4. The Holy Spirit was absent in the performance and attitude of the works performed.	Because the gifts of the Spirit are directly tied to the Holy Spirit's presence in the believer's life, his absence is obvious in the redemptive paradigm of the heresy known as man's free-will. No fruit, no transformation by the Spirit--"Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?" Acts 19:2
