

Evolution's Three Core Beliefs

By Paul J. Wickliffe, Day of the LORD Publications, 2008

Tuesday, August 20, 2024

1. MAN IS AN ANIMAL

Man without dignity—Man has no moral conscience; therefore, he is no better than an animal. Collectivism's 'experiments' on men become justified—abortion, euthanasia, the Covid 'vaccine,' etc.

2. ALTRUISM

Man is basically 'good,' reformable, and evolving

3. 'NATURAL SELECTION' DETERMINES MAN'S FATE

Psychology/psychiatry/sociology—Man is at the mercy of his environment and therefore cannot be held responsible for his actions (environmental determinism or 'natural selection'—solidifies the individual's fate NOT personal responsibility). Man seeks 'truth' from within instead of realizing it lies beyond himself in Christ

Religious Collectivism's Three Core Beliefs:

1. MAN'S FREE-WILL

The damnable heresy of man's 'free-will' exalted, taught, and marketed is taught in all churches. Christ, through the apostle Paul, warned us of this counterfeit gospel of man—"for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ." This contrasts with the simple acknowledgment of self-evident truth surrounding us. Romans 1:20 declares man is without excuse.

2. RELIGIOUS COLLECTIVISM

Religious collectivism is the primary vehicle through which men will ultimately 'conquer' the seed of the woman (Christian, freedom-loving people). The lie all collectivists teach is the individual is subject to the group or collective memory complex, namely the masses controlled by the tyrant. Religious collectivism has perverted governments and produced policies which can be summed up in the phrases, 'the end justifies the means,' (murder; Agenda 2030) and "reaching across the aisle" (two steps forward, one step backward). Currently the Deep State has co-opted and corrupted virtually every business, corporation, Hollywood agent and actor/actress, government entity, major league sports franchise, tradition and institution in America

3. HATRED OF THE SEED OF THE SERPENT TOWARD THE SEED OF THE WOMAN

First evident in Genesis 3, sin with its independent mindset free of God's influence, instruction, and love Adam and Eve's rebellion produced death, the curse, and destruction on a scale unimaginable. We are told from Genesis 3 that those coming from our first parents fell into two camps, namely those that follow Jesus Christ and those that follow themselves and Satan. From Eden, the seed of the serpent and the seed of the woman, with their allegiances and alliances, become increasingly more apparent and distinguishable. In Genesis 4 we witnessed the murderous, unrepentant line of Cain whose generational hatred is evident. It is not until the birth of Seth's offspring, Enos, that men began to call upon the name of the LORD (Gen. 4:26). In Genesis 5, it was Seth's offspring known as the sons of God, that carried on the torch of the primitive patriarchal faith of Adam to the generation of Noah. In Genesis 6:2 the sons of God compromised their faith looking on the daughters of men only as flesh to be exploited, not as individuals of beauty in appearance as well women loving their Creator through their spirit. After the flood, the antichristian mindset was re-branded and re-packaged through a charismatic giant known as Nimrod—a mighty hunter before the LORD. Erecting a clandestine monolith known as the Chaldean Mysteries, Nimrod's subversive movement called itself 'Christian.' It is a system the Lord warned his followers about in the book of Revelation. Its surrogates, operatives, and assets are religious in appearance and are the direct descendants of the seed of the serpent, whose followers are clothed in the clerical garb of Romanism, and its corrupt offspring Protestantism. It is these individuals and these movements Jesus identifies as MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. It is this religious system that prowls today seeking whom it may devour.

Taking the largest of the two archeological excavation sites (A & B), the Ziggurat of Jiroft in the southern Iranian Province of Kerman, largest ancient ziggurat discovered to date is 13.5 hectares (1,453,127.91m<sup>2</sup>) at its base and 61m (200') in height. Given the age of the structure (Genesis 11:1-9 [1,723-1,733 B.C.]), change in climate shortly after the global flood of Noah, the construction practice of building on top of previously destroyed edifices, wind erosion, as well as the destructive nature of subsequent empires, it is safe to assume that this ziggurat could have at one time reached 4,359,383.72m<sup>2</sup> at its base, while the height could have been as much 8,000' high. Contemporary height measurements place this ziggurat at 200'. This is far less than the 20' the religious shrine could have stood (20<sup>3</sup> being 8,000'). Why would this be so difficult to conceive considering the tallest building in the world is Burj Khalifa at 2,722' high. Look at the dimension of Noah's ark with just 8 people working on it for 100 years. The Book of Jasher states in 9:38 that after God's judgment only one-third of the ziggurat was visible. It also mentions in 9:23 that the labor force was 600,000 men. Give 600,000 men 10-12 years to construct a city and a tower . . . And well, you could only imagine what could be built!

COLLECTIVISM

Gen. 11:6—And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one . . .

This is the origin and definition of collectivism. Its framework is religious. Its motivation is the elevation of mankind. Its appeal is to the atheistic masses working in concert against the individual, his uniqueness, autonomy and freedom to think within the confines of God's moral code of conduct, namely respect for the biblical God and others.

Ziggurat of Jiroft (Konar Sandal B) in the southern Iranian Province of Kerman